GOVT. LAUNCHES ATTACK ON INFLATION

Members of the British Parliamentary Delegation, on January 7, visited the sweepers' colony and went into many side-lanes in Delhi to study housing conditions., etc. As the Leader of the Delegation observed at the previous day's Press Conference, he and his colleagues were determined to get as close to the Indian people as possible, to see India as it really was....."
Picture shows: Mr. Reginald Sorensen is fondling a little inmate of the sweepers' colony with Mrs. Muriel Nichol, Mr. Sorensen's colleague on the Delegation, standing to his right, looking on interestedly.

BR. DELEGATION TO CONTACT JAIPRAKASH NARAYAN

Lord Chorley And Sorensen Expect To Visit Agra Jail Towards End Of Tour

NEW DELHI, Jan. 11 (A.P.I.)—The British Delegation left Delhi tonight at the conclusion of what in Parliamentary parlance may be called the "introduction" stage of their tour. During their six days' stay here they had an introduction to the Indian problem and had time to decide what aspect of it each would individually pursue during the rest of the tour. At least two members have decided that they want fewer parties and more contact with the ordinary people.

Mrs. Nichol stated that her visit to Delhi had been most instructive. She now knew what she wanted to concentrate on and what to avoid.

"Speaking for myself," she said, "I feel that we have met far too many people at a time and with not even a few of them have we had the chance to get down to a real discussion. By this I don't mean that the parties we have attended have not been valuable. They have been valuable and have served a good jumping-off place, as it were. However, I do want to see more of the type of Indian who corresponds to the artisan in England and find out how he lives, what his problems are. Unless I can do that, I don't think I will get the feel of the country, which is most important. This must go side by side with our discussions with political leaders."

In Bombay Mrs. Nichol and Mr. Bottomly have decided to study as thoroughly as possible the industrial population and their way of life.

Mr. Richards, the leader, has refused to be drawn into any comment, since the Press Conference on Sunday last.

TO CONTACT JAIPRAKASH

Lord Chorley and Mr. Sorensen expect to visit the Agra Jail towards the end of the tour and meet Mr. Jaiprakash Narain detained there.

RADICALS AND COMMUNISTS MEET THEM

The Parliamentary Delegation began today's programme with a meeting with Mr. Frank Anthony, the Anglo-Indian leader, and then saw two representatives of the Radical Democratic Party—Mr. V. M. Tharkunde and Mr. A. K. Mukherjee—and later seven representatives of the Communist Party led by Mr. Faruqi and including a woman.

Mr. Bottomly told a Press correspondent that he heard with interest the account given by the Communists of the conditions under which Indian labouring classes lived and worked. "The Communist boys put their case very strongly," he added.

Mr. Hopkins Morris said: "The Delhi Communists mostly discussed local problems. We hope to meet their central leadership in Bombay and discuss larger issues."

NOTHING GOOD

MADRAS, Jan. 10 (A.P.I.): There was no use expecting any good from the Parliamentary Delegation which was going round the country observed Mr. V. V. Giri, President of the All-India Railwaymen's Federation, at a meeting of the M. and S. M. Railway workers this evening at Perambur.

Mr. Giri said that the delegation had been sent only to postpone things. They had been many commissions in the past but nothing came out of them. If the British Government granted political equality to India now. The future Indo-British relations would be good.

Mr. Giri added that, if imperialism was liquidated capitalism would liquidate itself. It was, therefore, the duty of every worker to support the Congress in the ensuing elections as it was the only organisation fighting to liberate the country from foreign yoke.

A sum of Rs. 10 lakhs has been placed at the disposal of the delegate in Siam of the International Red Cross Committee for relief of Indian labourers who had been employed by the Japanese on the Burma Siam Railway.

TASK FOR ANEY

THREE YEARS' JAIL FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY OR FOR FALSE SUBMISSION

NEW DELHI, January 12. (A.P.I.)

JAP CABINET RESHUFFLE

TOKYO, Jan. 11. (Reuter): The Japanese Cabinet under Baron Kijuro Shidehara is to be reshuffled as a result of the purge directives issued last week by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, it was announced today.

Earlier the Premier's personal secretary stated that Baron Shidehara had decided that the whole Cabinet should resign. But this decision was suddenly reversed after several Ministers had visited the aged Premier at his home where he is still in bed and persuaded him to reshuffle the Cabinet instead.

Gen. MacArthur's directives outlawed the "Black Dragon" Society and 26 other Japanese "underground" organisations. They also ordered the exclusion of all "undesirable personnel" from public office and Government service.

The Shidehara Cabinet took office on October 8 last after the resignation of the Government headed by Prince Higashikuni.

NO RUSSIAN OR CHINESE TROOPS FOR JAPAN

TOKYO, Jan. 11. (Reuter): Neither Russian nor Chinese troops are likely to participate in the occupation of Japan, the United States Secretary of War Mr. Robert Patterson intimated here today.

Mr. Patterson said: "As far as I know, there has been no desire on the part of Russians to furnish occupation forces, and there is no plan for sending Chinese troops to Japan. I understand there are deliberations under way for the arrival of British Commonwealth troops, including Australians. The areas they are to occupy are not yet determined".

Text Of Statement

The following is the full text of the Press Note explaining the provisions of the Ordinance:—

"An Ordinance entitled the Bank Notes (Declaration of Holdings) Ordinance has been promulgated this morning. Today is declared a Bank Holiday under the Ordinance.

The Ordinance requires Banks (which expression includes Banking Companies as defined in Section 277-F of the Indian Companies Act, 1913) and Government Treasuries to furnish to the Reserve Bank of India by 3 P. M. today a statement of their holdings of Bank Notes of the denominational value of Rs. 100 and above as at the close of the business on the 11th January, 1946.

The return which is to be in triplicate, requires total value of holdings of each of the denominational value of one hundred, five hundred, one thousand and ten thousand rupees to be shown separately. The completed return has to be submitted to a Branch Manager of the Reserve Bank of India where there is an office of that Bank or elsewhere to the District Magistrate or in his absence to the Sub-Divisional Magistrate or in the absence of any of the foregoing officers to the seniormost Revenue or Police Officer available in the station for transmission to the Reserve Bank of India, Bombay.

In token of the receipt of the return, the Officer to whom it is presented will give back to the person presenting it a copy of the triplicate, noting the time and date of receipt.

Where it is not convenient to follow above procedure, the Ordinance provides for the statement of holdings as indicated above being sent by express telegram to Reserve Bank, Bombay, by 3 P. M. in which case a duly certified duplicate copy should be obtained from the Telegraph Office and a confirmatory copy sent by registered post to the Reserve Bank, Bombay.

Failure to prepare and present such a return, or the presentation of a false return, will render the Manager of the Bank or Branch, as the case may be, punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine or with both.

The object of the Ordinance is to ascertain the amount of notes of the value of Rupees One Hundred and above held by Banks and Treasuries in comparison with the total note circulation.

Arrangements have been made to make the contents of the Ordinance known to Banks and Treasuries by telegram.

SECURITY DEMAND ON PATNA DAILY

PATNA, Jan. 11 (A.P.I.): A security of Rs. 1,500 has been demanded under the Emergency Powers Act, from the "Rashtravani", a local Hindi daily, to be deposited with the District Magistrate of Patna by Jan. 26.

This, it is stated, is a sequel to the Government of Bihar taking objection to two articles appealing in the paper in November last entitled "Enquiry into Atrocities" and "Repression and Labour Government."

Fate Of 15 Members Of Afghan Royal House

SECRETLY HELD BY BRITISH IN INDIA SINCE 1941?

LONDON, Jan. 11. (Reuter): Fifteen members of the Afghan Royal House have been secretly held in India by the British authorities since June 1941, alleges the "New Leader", the official weekly of the Independent Labour Party.

Congress Socialist's Allegations

The allegations which are made by Mr. V. K. Menon of the Congress Socialist Party, who, says the "New Leader", was recently released after 30 months detention, state: "Their offence is support of progressive forces in Afghanistan against the reactionary Government which was set up in subservience to the British after the fall of the "revolutionary" King Amanullah Khan".

"The story of their arrest is not creditable to those concerned" the writer says, adding "in 1939 the British invited the heads of the family, two brothers, Sardar Ghulam Ahmedkhan and Sardar Faiz Ahmed Khan to visit India, where they were told they would be treated with all honour due to their rank and status".

As soon as they crossed the frontier in November 1939 their families were deported by clandestine understanding between the British authorities and the Afghan rulers and their property was confiscated. The exiles were not allowed to leave Poona and their house was watched inside and outside by the Indian C. I. D.

"The families consisted of a mother, two brothers, three wives and seven children. In June 1940, eight adults were arrested at the instance of the External Affairs Department of the Government of India and have been kept in custody at Karwar ever since".

U. S. TELEPHONE STRIKE

NEW YORK, Jan. 11. (Reuter): The United States has suffered a nationwide breakdown of telephone communications since 1 a.m. (New York Time) (5.30 p.m. I. S. T.) when picketing began of telephone exchanges throughout the country, reports Reuter.

GOVT. TO TAKE OVER.

The United States Government may be recommended to take over America's telephone system if to-day's spreading strike produces a complete national communications paralysing a Labour Department spokesman said to-day.

4 KILLED IN RAID BY CIVIL PIONEERS

'Villagers Attacked, Women Molested And Property Looted'

CALCUTTA, Jan. 11. (A.P.I.): Four persons died as a result of the raid by a number of members of a Civil Pioneer Force unit on village Sathazari, near Chittagong, according to a report received from the President of the Chittagong District Congress Committee, Mr. Jamini Bose, by Mrs. Nellie Sen Gupta.

Mr. Bose has requested Gandhiji to make a personal inspection of the place, and has sent the report to him also.

According to this account, about 300 members of the force attacked the village, molested women, poured petrol on 58 houses, set them on fire and looted property. One person was thrown into the blazing fire. Several persons were injured, and thirteen admitted to hospital.

The incident arose, says the telegram, from an attack on a woman by three members of the Force. Men of the village resisted it, whereupon a reinforced party of fifty members of the Force came back to attack the villagers. They were also successfully obstructed. Then followed the final attack by 300 men on the villagers.

CUBAN DELEGATE RAISES CONTROVERSIAL ISSUE

Small Nations' Fear Finds Expression In United Nations Assembly

LONDON, Jan. 11. (Reuter): Immediately following his opening speech as President of the U.N.O. Assembly, the Belgium Foreign Minister, Dr. Henri Spaak, asked for authorisation of the Executive Secretary and his staff to perform the function of the Secretary-General and the secretariat pending the appointment of a Secretary-General.

As no objection was raised, the motion was passed.

The delegate of Colombia, Dr. Eduardo Zuleta, was asked to present the report of the Preparatory Commission, which is now being done.

DR. SPAAK'S ADDRESS

Hurrying through drizzling rain and over deserted pavements empty of yesterday's cheering crowds, the delegates of fifty-one United Nations gathered in the Central Hall, London, today to hear the newly elected President, M. Paul Henri Spaak, Belgian Foreign Minister, open the second day's meeting with his first formal presidential address, cables Michael Fry, Reuter's special correspondent.

There were even empty seats in the public gallery crowded to breaking point last night when M. Spaak rose from his seat overlooking the vast hall to express his deep emotion and gratitude for the great honour of having been elected President of the Assembly.

He began by saying that he had a confession to make. His satisfaction at his election was mitigated by the regret that his friend M. Trygve Lie, the Norwegian Foreign Minister who represented the valiant people of Norway, had not been elected.

M. Spaak said that he fully understood the choice of M. Lie as a candidate for the presidency and shared the feeling of those delegates who had voted for him.

Greeting all the delegates in his role as President, M. Spaak singled out Mrs. Roosevelt—"one who bears a name most illustrious and respected"—for special tribute.

Loud applause greeted his words that all shared her bereavement for "that great figure, President Roosevelt."

As M. Spaak sat down the assembled statesmen gave their new President a big ovation.

ESSENTIAL FOR SUCCESS

M. Spaak delivered his 12-minute speech in strong forceful French, emphasising his remarks with downward sweeps of his clenched right hand.

Recalling the failure of the League of Nations he said: "During the period which intervened between the

Freedom from Suffering

As one nears the shores of America, coming from across the Atlantic, one of the most inspiring sights is the Statue of Liberty. It not only serves as a cheering beacon to the mariner, but also symbolises the hopes of millions of downtrodden humanity who have left the Old World for the freedom of a new life in a new clime—freedom from want, from fear and from oppression.

Of all freedoms, however, the greatest is the freedom from disease. The healthiest—rich or poor—for want of this freedom are changed to sick and diseased whose lives become useless to themselves and to the world. Freedom from disease is therefore the greatest freedom which everyone should strive for.

Cipla Laboratories are devoting their full time and attention to the production of high quality drugs and medicines for the relief of mankind, thus striving for Freedom from disease. In quality, efficacy and high standard of production of drugs and medicines Cipla is equal to the world's best. Scientific methods of production and constant research lead to perfection. This is the motto followed by Cipla.

RUIKAR ASKS FOR ARBITRATION

One Of Topmost Congress Leaders Should Move To Avert C. P. General Strike

NAGPUR, Jan. 11. (A.P.I.): A suggestion that the millowners should agree to the arbitration of one of the topmost Congress leaders such as the Congress President Moulana Abul Kalam Azad, Pandit Nehru or Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel is made by Mr. R. S. Ruikar, Labour leader and President of the Central Provinces Textile Workers' Federation, in a letter to Mr. S. H. Batliwala, Chairman of the Nagpur Committee of the C. P. Millowners' Association, in connection with the threatened general strike in the Province on January 16.

Mr. Ruikar refers to the refusal of the C. P. Government to appoint an arbitrator as indicated in its Press Note on Jan. 9 and asserts that the strike now seems inevitable involving 40,000 workers in the textile industry to secure their demands. Mr. Ruikar says that it is obvious that the viewpoints of millowners and textile workers are too wide and divergent but he reiterates his anxiety to find our an honourable via media to avoid the impending strike.

A. C. C. Declares Dividend Of Rs. 7 Per Share

The ninth annual general meeting of the Associated Cement Companies Ltd. was held at the Sunderabai Hall, Bombay, on Friday afternoon.

Sir Homi Mody, chairman of the company, who presided at the meeting, in moving the adoption of the annual report of the company said, "The close of the year under review saw the crushing defeat of the Axis Powers and the imminent collapse of Japan. A resounding victory has been achieved, but at a terrible cost which time alone will be able to measure. The war is at an end, but over the greater part of the world, the conditions which brought it about still prevail, and the ideals for which it was fought are very far from realization. A free India, with her belief in the democratic way of life, might have made no mean a contribution to the solution of the tremendous problems which are afflicting the world, but our own struggle for freedom is not at an end, and we continue to be, more or less, helpless spectators of the international scene. India's future is in the laps of her political gods, and the next few months will see decisions of great import."

Sir Homi also said that cement was now freely available to the public and the price had been reduced by Rs. 5 per ton. A factory at Chaibasa was nearing completion. He also added that two other sites had been surveyed.

The report of the company which was adopted at the meeting showed a profit of Rs. 65,28,045. Apart from other allotments, a dividend of Rs 7 per share was declared, absorbing Rs. 49,37,947.

The following directors who retired by rotation have been re-elected. Sir Rahimtoola M. Chinoy, Mr. Dinsha K. Daji, Mr. Dharamsey M. Khatau, Mr. J. R. D. Tata, Mr. A. H. Wadia Mr. Haridas Madhawdas, Sir Sorab Saklatwala and Mr. B. D. Garg.

Wives Of Indians In Belgian Congo Stranded.

Prohibited From Joining Their Husbands Unless They Know English Or French

BOMBAY, Friday.

The Imperial Indian Citizenship Association received several complaints from Indian residents in Belgian Congo and the Mandated Territory of Ruanda Urundi that under an Ordinance wives of Indians who were not residents there before 1940 are prohibited from joining their husbands unless they know English or French.

Consequently, wives of a number of Indian residents in these Territories are stranded in Zanzibar, Mombasa, Uganda and Dar-es-Salaam. After the Belgian Congo authorities rejected their repeated petitions, Indian residents approached the British Consul at Leopoldville to intervene on their behalf and to secure the necessary permission for the entry of their wives. Unfortunately, even the British Consul did not succeed in his efforts.

The Association made a strong representation to the Government of India requesting them to move His Majesty's Government to bring pressure to bear upon the Government of Belgian Congo to withdraw the Ordinance. The External Affairs Department, Government of India, in their reply to the Association state that they have addressed His Majesty's Government in the matter.

Life Of Sun Yat-Sen To Be Filmed

Lester Cowan's Big Plan

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 11. (U.P.A.): War's end mean full speed ahead for Producer Lester Cowan and his plan to make a motion picture of the life of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, writes Nora Paredes, United Press of America staff correspondent. Cowan has gone to Washington to arrange a trip to China early in 1946—the last step before formal production begins.

The film has long been one of Cowan's ambitions. It was envisioned long before the war began, but he put off production on the theory the war would resolve some of the issues involved, he said before leaving. Two of those issues, he said, were "extra-territoriality and democracy both among the unfinished business in Sun Yat-Sen's will. I hope by the time the picture is finished other pending issues will be resolved so the film will in some way mark the full realization of Dr. Sun's whole dream".

Cowan envisions the picture as an "adventure in international statesmanship that may even help to resolve the current confusion". But he doesn't want to give the idea he is out to make a documentary film.

"The story of Sun Yat-Sen in itself is an exciting, personal story", he explained, "and there are your ingredients for any good picture".

Among other things, he wants his production to dramatize the idea of racial equality. That is why he will have most of the action in America and England, where the Chinese leader received much of his inspiration for the work he later carried out in China.

"I want the two peoples—Americans and Chinese—to realize their ideals spring from a common source. Everybody wants to 'rescue' the Chinese when they just want to be treated as equals".

Cowan plans to spend about dol. 2,000,000 on the production. Some of that money has gone into research on Dr. Sun's life, during the past 18 months. Helping on the research have been such experts as Owen Lattimore, Dr. Hu Shih and Senator Elbert D. Thomas. Cowan said Mrs. Pearl S. Buck had expressed an interest in helping with the writing of the script.

He said Paul Muni is interested in portraying Dr. Sun, but Cowan wants to look over actors in the modern Chinese theatre, during his trip, before deciding definitely on the east.

Our Readers' Views

Post-War Reconstruction & Cooperation

I have carefully gone through the post-war reconstruction scheme for the Bulsar taluka so far as the co-operative department is concerned. It consists of organising two new multipurpose societies at Dongri and at Ronwell and conversion of three rural credit societies at Atgaum, Malvan and Parnera. At Atgaum it is also proposed to organise a farming society. The multipurpose society at Bulsar is to be converted into a takuka purchase and sale union and a depot of an Industrial Association is also to be opened there. Malvan (Danti) is also selected for organising a fishermen's society. Two more villages Bhutsai and Chanval are selected as suitable centres for starting cattle-breeding societies. So far so good. But has any attempt been made to find out who are likely to bear the brunt of carrying on such societies when organised? Chanval has hardly any record of good work to boast of as a rural credit society. Atgaum's record as the centre of a rural credit society has been excellent under the leadership of Mr. Manibhai Haribhai. He has been carrying on a successful grain bank for Government for the last four or five years But he has ceased to be a favourite with some Government Departments he once was, and a case is about to be started against him for not declaring the stock of the grain bank. That we suffer from lack of good selfless workers is notorious. Nothing is being done to mix with real leaders of rural India and to encourage them to come out to render social service. Co-operative societies may be organised and imposed from above and may even work for a time but cannot take root and thrive unless the whole angle of vision is changed and the angle of action altered to make people feel that these societies are their societies, that they will be allowed to work them without let or hindrance, that they will be properly and sympathetically guided even when going wrong and not snubbed and threatened with superior people from above. Unless and until such an atmosphere is attempted to be created, and the whole movement worked as a genuine popular movement, one cannot predict a bright future for the movement.

A depot of a taluka industrial Association is to be established at Bulsar. If I am rightly informed the Surat weavers' co-operative producers' society is to be the industrial association for the Surat district. But before the happy day of consummation arrives, the Assistant Registrar is out to ruin the weavers' society by asking two of its most active members removed from the society for no fault of theirs known to him. He is out to ruin the Surat district purchase and sale union which is authorised by its byelaws to be the central wholesale society to which purchase and sale societies in the district be affiliated by encouraging another central association of consumers' stores to be started in Surat and by proposing the Bulsar multipurpose society to be converted into a taluka purchase and sale union.

It is true that the scheme proposes fairly substantial grants to be given by Government by way of subsidies for the first three or four years. But these subsidies will not be substitutes for men to work the schemes and it is high time that sustained propaganda should be carried on from now to prepare the minds of people to favourably receive the schemes and to work them out.

Selection Of League Candidates

I fully agree with the views expressed by your correspondent, Mr. Abdul Quddos when he says that the selection of the League candidates was based on favouritism rather than any uniform policy. The very fact that seven members of the Parliamentary Board managed to get the party tickets, shows that there is something rotten in the State of Denmark. One would naturally ask why Sir Ali Mohamed Khan Dehlavi who, also is a member of the Board, was not selected. The reason is not far to seek. As one who knows the ins and outs of the Board, I can say that Mr. Chundrigar who has his majority in the Board, is impatient to become the leader of the League Assembly Party and he, therefore, took the line of least resistance by depriving Sir Ali of his rightful claim. This is manifest from the selection of Mr. Gheewalla and Mr. Goodwalla ("good" means "Jaggery") which combination, Mr. Chundrigar hopes, will make a "laddoo" for him to swallow! But let me tell him that he will not find it so delicious as he expects it to be.

Sir Abdul Lateef was not given the ticket, because, we are told, he was expelled from the League. On the other hand, the Board thought it fit to select Mr. S. M. Hassan from East Khandesh although disciplinary action was also taken against him for the same offence. How could there be one yard-stick for Sir Abdul and another for Mr. Hassan passes my comprehension Did Mr. Chundrigar want to take revenge against Dr. Kazi for, his audacity to contest the Provincial League presidentship?

Then, again, Mr. Alamgeer Patel a close relation of Mr. Aziz Gaffoor Kazi who joined the League as late as 13th July, 45, has been selected while Mr. Abdul Razaque Kuwari, the founder of the Thana Muslim League and a prominent figure in the Thana public life, has been dropped just because he did not have a god-father in the Parliamentary Board.

Coming to Jalgaon, Mr. Deshmukh was selected because, it is said, there are many Deshmukhs in his constituency. Why was not, then, Mr. Jesdenwalla selected although there are 40,000 Bohra voters in Bombay (South).

The most amusing of all is the rejection of a candidate from the South. I am told this candidate was asked how much he was prepared to spend for his election. He gave a figure within his means, which appeared to be very meagre in the eyes of the selectors, and the ticket for this particular constituency was, for all practical purposes, auctioned to the highest bidder. May I very politely ask our honourable members of the Board as to why the election fund was collected if not to help the poor but deserving candidates?

Sir, there could be only one explanation for this great bungling: The Parliamentary Board has taken unfair advantage of the fact that this Province is overwhelmingly League-minded and, therefore, they have given the ticket to anyone they pleased, as success was almost a foregone conclusion.

Parsis & Sapru Report

I have seen the criticism of Prof. P. A. Wadia challenging the observations made by Sir H. P. Mody on the omissions in the Sapru Committee Report in so far as it relates to representation of the Parsi community in a future constitution of India. Prof. Wadia asks whether there is any community so microscopic as the Parsis and how are they get representation? Has Prof. Wadia not read of various devices whereby a minority can be represented in the legislature or executive? Without meaning any disparagement to any other sister community, may one ask which other minority community has done so much for the industrial and economic development of India as the Parsi community?

Prof. Wadia criticises Sir H. P. Mody for committing the same error as other Parsis who are asking for reservation of seats. What is wrong, as Sir H. P. Mody points out, if Parsis ask for the same privileges as are conceded to other minorities specifically? And let Prof. Wadia understand that Parsis do not ask for these privileges for promotion of communal interests, but only so that they may continue to serve their country as they have done in the past.

Incidentally it would be interesting if Prof. Wadia will have the courage to tell the public as to how many Parsi members are there on the register of this self-styled 'Freedom Group', so that the Parsis may understand what authority the Group has to speak in the name of the Parsi community. It would be a surprise if the number of Parsis attached to this group amounts to even a respectable fraction of one per cent of the Parsi community!

New Deal For Indonesia

Australian Minister's Plea

NEW DELHI, Jan. 11. (A.P.A.): Security in the Pacific Demands a new deal for the people of Indonesia and other regions of the South-West Pacific—a "fair go", in the Australian phrase, according to Australian Foreign Minister Dr. H. V. Evatt.

In a paper for the January issue of India Quarterly, organ of the Indian Council of World Affairs, he wrote that this is a primary consideration in the shaping of Australia's security policies.

He added:

"The principles of the Atlantic Charter should apply to the Pacific as elsewhere and in the exercise of their imperial rule, colonial powers in the Pacific and elsewhere should accept the principle that the main purpose of their administration is the welfare of native peoples and their social, economic and political development".

"The Japanese war has brought a new consciousness to Australians of the island territories of the South Pacific.....There is an Australian phrase which perhaps expresses what these men (Australian Soldiers) and, I believe, the Australian people feel:

"It is that these Pacific peoples.....should now have a 'fair go'. Such a new deal for the peoples of the south-west Pacific is not only a fundamental conviction of Australian labour, it is a primary condition for the creation of any lasting stability in an area which just into the vitals of Australia's security".

At another point in his paper, the Foreign Minister wrote: "It is equally true that the intimate relations between conditions of security in an area and the political and economic welfare of its people apply to India and Burma as to south-east Asia".

Doping Of Race Horses By Outside Agency?

YET ANOTHER COMPLAINT

Magistrates Direct Police To Verify Allegations

BOMBAY, Friday.

Yet another complaint alleging that an outside agency was doping race-horses was presented before Mr. F. D. Kanga at the Esplanade Court today.

The complaint was presented by Mr. A. T. Janai on behalf of trainer Badruddin, whose horse Snapper was found positive to a drug during the chemical analysis of its sweat, saliva, etc.

The complainant prayed for police investigation. The Magistrate directed the matter to be handled by the police.

EARLIER CASE

A similar complaint by Mr. Habib Chotani, trainer of "Medallion" which had been sent to the police for enquiries, came up for hearing before Mr. Oscar H. Brown, Chief Presidency Magistrate, at the Esplanade Court.

Mr. A. T. Janai on behalf of Mr. Chotani, said that his client was a trainer of ten years' standing and had in his charge 52 horses. It was extremely unlikely that he could have doped his own horses, as he knew that trainers had already been warned off in Poona for similar offences, and that detection was certain.

His client was certain that an outside agency was responsible for the doping for ulterior reasons.

OFFENCE "NON-COGNISABLE?"

For their own reasons, the police, after recording the statements of the complainant and the evidence of the Syees, had stopped all investigations. At the time they stopped investigations they were on the right track. It was their duty to send all the evidence and the papers, to the court, instead of which they had sent two lines saying that the offence was "non-cognisable." It was not for the police to decide points of law but for the court.

COURT ALONE CAN DECIDE

The Chief Presidency Magistrate in his order said, "The police have sent a short report saying that Section 428 was not applicable in this case. The report is not satisfactory. It is the right of the court to decide points of law and the police cannot withhold the statement recorded."

FOR VERIFICATION

He directed that fresh enquiries be made as extensively as possible, as the matter was of public importance. If the complainant made allegations against an outside agency, it ought to be verified by the police.

KANNADA POET TO BE HONOURED

M. S. Rao, Jt. Hon. General Secretary, writes: Poet Bendre's 50th Birthday falls on 17-2-1946. Shriyut Bendre's name is familiar to every Kannadiga. His poems supply a well blended mixture of philosophy and entertainment of a very high class. They have endeared him to the thinking men as well as to the ladies and children of the Karnataka. His poems are sung in every home and in every school. Some of his poems have been translated into Marathi, Hindi and English by his admirers.

Shriyut Bendre has written excellent essays, dramas, stories, also. He has encouraged and inspired young writers. Some friends and admirers desire to celebrate his fiftieth birthday in a manner becoming the greatness of the poet. One committee at Dharwar and one in Bombay have been formed for the purpose.

The success of the programme depends entirely upon the response to the appeal from the large circle of friends and admirers of Shriyut Bendre. The idea of the Committee as at present formed in consultation with some friends, is to present Shriyut Bendre with a purse on the fiftieth birthday and also to publish a volume or volumes that will be a real good contribution to Kannada literature. Any other suggestions from friends will be carefully considered by the committee.

All sympathisers and well-wishers should send their contribution by M.O. or by crossed cheque to Shriyut M. S. Rao, Honorary Secretary, The Bendre Satkara Samithi, C/o Mogaveera Yuwaka Sangha, 2nd Floor 46, Churchgate Street, Fort, Bombay.

All donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged.

THE ROYAL PRIVILEGE OF LASTING YOUTH

Royal Oonim

WHAT greater misfortune can there be than loss of youthful vigour in a man possessed of plenty. Literally, he starves amongst plenty. There is a "hidden secret" that runs through the lore of Ancient Egyptian and Hindu Medicine, which has enabled them to preserve their youthful vitality to an advanced old age. This secret is not dead. It has been unearthed and improved upon by the wizards of modern medicine. Their researches have been incorporated into a modern tonic of miraculous power known as Royal Oonim, not a secret remedy, but a "synthetic hormone-vitamin food concentrate. For the first time in the history of western medicine the costliest king of tonics of ancient Ayurveda, viz., Poorna Chandrodaya (mixed with atomised gold), has been scientifically blended with synthetic hormones and vitamins. Royal Oonim never fails to restore youthful vitality however great the extent of the deterioration or how advanced the age, and takes effect gradually succeeding even in long-standing obstinate cases which have not responded to normal treatments. The very first container will convince you of its remarkable efficacy. It must be experienced to be believed. It is totally different from what you have ever dreamt of or even tried.

Royal Oonim acts as a direct stimulant to the cluster of ductless gland which constitute the glandular system, in an astonishing manner with a remarkable and immediate effect on the energy centre of the spinal cord, giving the power of youth and a deep-rooted, permanent benefit to the general health and spirits. Only quite small doses of this new and wonderful (yet absolutely drugless and harmless) "synthetic food" will bring about astonishing results.

This preparation must not be confounded with the customary stimulants, the action of which are transient and the reaction highly injurious, for the effect of Royal Oonim is not momentary, but permanent. The amazing and lasting restoration of power is altogether different to anything previously experienced.

Royal Oonim is prepared separatly for men and women. Being a "food-concentrate, it can be taken in any season by young and old alike. Price per container of 63 capsules, sufficient for 3 Weeks. Rs.50/- full course, 4 containers, 252 capsules, Rs.200. For exhaustive details refer "Health & Vitality by Modern Methods."

Biotestron Ampoules: The finest synthetic hormone treatment for restoring youthful vigour and lost manhood. Contains synthetic testosterone propionate and oestradiol dipropionate dissolved in sesame oil. For intramuscular injection only. These injections are painless, cause no reactions and can be administered with the greatest of ease by any average medico or even a trained nurse or compounder. Price: per box of 12 ampoules of Biotestron 25mgm. Rs. 180/-; per box of 12 ampoules of Biotestron 50 mgm. Rs. 280/-.

Byrnes Explains Resolution Formulated At Moscow Talks

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8: Secretary of State Byrnes made the following statement yesterday, just before leaving for London, in response to a question as to the atomic energy resolution formulated at the recent Moscow conference of the Foreign Ministers of Russia, Britain and the United States:

"In accordance with usual practice, the resolution on the control of atomic energy will undoubtedly be referred to a Committee and our representatives will have ample opportunity to make certain that there is no misunderstanding as to the purpose, scope and operation of the commission.

"The phases of the problem which the Commission is to inquire into are those raised by the discovery of atomic energy referred to in the opening sentence of the proposed resolution. The problem referred to the commission is not how atomic energy is to be produced, but how it shall be controlled in the interest of peace. I do not see how the language used can possibly be construed to give the Commission authority to obtain information which is not publicly available, or which is not voluntarily given to it under the United Nations Charter. The language of the resolution makes it clear that even in the exchange of basic scientific information for peaceful purposes the Commission has authority only to make recommendations.

"While our delegation to the United Nations Assembly may vote to authorise a study by a Commission of the international problems raised by the discovery of atomic energy, such action could not give the Commission the authority to decide what information the United States or any other government should place at its disposal.

SECURITY COUNCIL'S POWERS

"If the commission, upon which the United States is represented, recommended exchange of any scientific information, this recommendation would go to the Security Council. Action by the Security Council requires concurrence of the five permanent members, including the United States. Therefore, unless the United States concurs in the recommendation it could not be adopted.

"If the United States concurred and the Security Council adopted the recommendation, it would still be for the Government of the United States by treaty involving Congressional action to determine to what extent that recommendation should be acted upon. If action is required by treaty it would take a two-thirds vote of the Senate to ratify the treaty. Under all these circumstances I think the interests of the United States are fully protected.

"Before the first session of the United Nations Assembly our delegation will have a meeting and we will have an opportunity to discuss all the subjects on the agenda."

Before boarding his plane at the airport, Byrnes told press correspondents that he will stay in London for the duration of the debate on the "Big Three" resolution on atomic energy control. He expects to be back in about a fortnight.—(U.S.I.S.).

Dollar To Replace Sterling

NEW YORK, Jan. 11, (U.P.I.): It will be a "dollar world", according to Mr. John Abbink, Chairman of the National Foreign Trade Council of United States.

He stated yesterday that dollar would peplace pound as menetary standard if the Bretton Woods plan and the United States loan to Britain were "properly developed."

He added "The United States will become the greatest financial agent the world has ever known. The line of credit to be offered to Britain together with the settlement of lend-lease is a small price to pay for opportunity to plan the period of prosperity such as this country has never known."

Russia's Gold Reserves

LONDON, Jan. 10, (U.P.I.): Information regarding one of Russia's most carefully guarded secrets was revealed by the "New York Times" today. Quoting informed quarters it said that the Soviet Union has gold reserves of between five hundred and two thousand million pounds.

Russia, it added, is producing gold at the annual rate of forty-two to seventy million pounds from 19 major fields, including a comparatively new "fabulously rich" area between the sea of Okhotsk and the upper reaches of Kolyma river.

German Atom Scientist Held By British

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, (U.P.A.): Reports available at the national capital today said that Otto Hahn, noted German atom scientist and Nobel prize winner in physics in 1944, whose disappearance had been a mystery, was arrested by an Anglo-American combat team last spring and held protectively by the British authorities on a farm near London. It may be, that he is now being returned to Germany.

Meanwhile, a Daily Express dispatch from New York said that Hahn was arrested at Tailfingen in Wurttemberg to which place he had evacuated his Kaiser Wilhelm Institute staff and family.

BRITAIN NOT TO RECOGNISE

Siamese Seizure Of Indo-Chinese Territory

PARIS, Jan. 11 (APA): The French Foreign Office said to-day that Britain and America had sent notes to the Siamese Government refusing to recognize Siamese seizure of Indo-Chinese territory in 1941.

The Quai d'Orsay said that the two Governments state they would not recognize the acquisition by Siam of any territory acquired later than December 11, 1940, including the territories ceded by the Vichy Government on May 9, 1941.

A.C.C. FIXES LEVEL OF GERMAN INDUSTRY

BERLIN, Jan. 11 (APA): The Allied Control Council decided on Thursday the level on which Germany will be allowed to run her peacetime industry.

Details of the decision were scheduled to be announced in a communique later, to-day.

PROTEST AGAINST U. S. REPATRIATION SCHEME

CALCUTTA, Jan. 10 (A.P.I.): Over 5,000 enlisted personnel of the U. S. armed forces including about 300 coloured soldiers in and near about Calcutta assembled to-day at Mansion Square Garden, Calcutta, to express their dissatisfaction at the policy of demobilisation followed by the U.S.A War Department.

Speeches were made by over a dozen persons demanding early repatritation to the United States in view of the fact that the war had ended six months ago. They found no justification why one-sixth of the U. S. armed formes should be retained in India for the disposal of surplus property.

A committee was formed representing all the camps to devise ways and means to bring home to their countrymen the fact that they were overanxious to go back to their native-land as they had their homes, relatives and friends there.

The meeting which lasted for over two hours ended with the singing of the U. S. National Anthem.

Leaflets announcing that the meeting would be held said: "Let's back our buddies in Manila and France and concluded 'we want home. Come all, tell all.'

A home sick U. S. soldier told the 'Associated Press of India' that they desired to be repatriated and take a rightful part in the shaping of things in peace at home.

He added that in Calcutta there were about 12 000 U. S. armed forces and in the Kancharapara and Karachi replacement camps there were about 20.000 men who were doing nothing constructive and were thus "unworthy of being in the uniforms they wore."

"We lie in our bunks and wait for meal time and we naturally wonder when the ships will arrive to take us home," he said. We want to go home so that we can take part in the issue of peace time. We wholeheartedly support the action taken by our brethern in Manila and France."

4-CRORE MILK PLAN FOR BOMBAY

BOMBAY, Jan. 10, (A.P.I.): A four-crore post-war milk scheme for Bombay city is mentioned in a recent report of the agricultural marketing adviser to the Government of India.

Proposals under the scheme include the creation of a milk board, empowered to control the entire milk production and distribution. The board's functions will embrace fixation of prices of the consumer, producer and distributor; prescription of transport charges, laying down standards of milk and control of quality, giving grants and subsidies, propaganda and research, getting fresh cattle feeds from other provinces regulating production and marketing

The food and agriculture minister is to be the president of the board, of which other members will be one representative each from the Federation of Producers and distributors, one from the Municipal Corporation, one from the consumers, one from road transport agency and two Government representatives.

The present position in Bombay is given as follows:—

Estimated consumption of milk six lakhs lbs. a day: annual value of milk sold Rs. 8,00,00,000. Number of milch cattle 64.000 valued at Rs. 3,00,00,000: population 27,00,000.

SIR WILLIAM WANLESS TUBERCULOSIS SANATORIUM

Rapid All-Round Progress

The biennial report (1942-44) of Sir William Wanless Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Wanless Wadi (Dist. Satara) just published states that the Sanatorium is a public non-profiteering Mission Institution supported by philanthropic bodies and gentlemen and co-operating Missions, paying patients and private donations help a great deal in the conduct of the institution's affairs and it receives no annual grant from the Government for its support.

Persons from all parts of the world go there for treatment. There is no caste or religious discrimination and everybody is welcome provided there is room. The question is not whence the patients come, but how soon they come, and the earlier they start treatment, the sooner they can return.

The sanatorium is at an altitude of 800 feet above sea level and is placed in British Territory with Sangli and Miraj a couple of miles away on either side M. and S. M. Railway. It owns 105 acres of land and an attempt is being made to add 54 acres more, of these, 80 acres are used for building purposes. No caste distinctions are observed in the sanatorium. It is clearly stated 'It is and has been one of the fundamental principles of the sanatorium not to take advantage of a patient's ill-health, in order to drive devotion in to him! Ample provision has been made for indigent patients who are taken care of in general wards and are treated free.

The Bombay Government has recently built two wards of 16 beds each for ex-service men, the first of its kind in India. 1st July, 1942, there were 223 patients in the sanatorium. (During the period of the two and half years 896 cases were admitted to the sunatorium bringing the number of patients treated in the above period to 1.119, 815 patients were discharged. Of these 790 patients were treated for pulmonary Tuberculosis and its complications. The territorial distribution of these 790 patients is as follows.

1. Bombay Province (out of which 240 are from Bombay and Suburbs and 130 from Gujarat and Kathiawar). 462.
2. Madras Province 15.
3. Indian States 103.
4. Other Provinces 100. (Out of which 21 are from United Provinces 14 from Central Provinces, 13 from Bengal, 36 from Goa, etc.)

Of these 790 patients under review there were Hindus 527, Mohammedans 85. Indian Christians 160. European Christians 5 Chinese Christians 2. Jews 6. Parsis 4 (theist 1). Of these 790 patients 530 were males and 260 females. Married males were 387 and unmarried males 143. Married females were 204 and unmarried females were 56.

Dr. G. Samuel M.B.B.S., F.A.Sc., is the medical Superintendent of the Sanatorium.

CONTRACT NOTES OF 'PAKKA ADATIA'

Are Exempt From Stamp Duty

(Before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Macklin & Mr. Justice Lokur).

In re: Shah Ramkrishnalal Dahyabhai.

This was a Reference by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority in which the important question which arose for decision was whether five contract notes rendered by a pakka adatia to his constituent in respect of transactions put through by him containing the usual pakki adat terms, required to be stamped under the Stamp Act.

Article 5 of the Stamp Act laid down the stamp required on an agreement or memorandum of an agreement, but exempted agreements relating to the purchase or sale of goods, not being a note or memorandum chargeable under Article 43 Article 43 dealt with the stamp chargeable on a note or memorandum sent by a broker or agent to his principal. It was contended on behalf of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority that the contract note sent by a pakka adatia required to be stamped under Article 43 because the pakka adatia was an agent of his constituent.

Their Lordships held that the relationship between a pakka adatia and his constituent was that of vendor and purchaser, and not of principal and agent, and that the contracts in question as being contracts for the purchase and sale of goods were exempt from the payment of stamp duty.

Mr. G. N. Joshi instructed by Messrs. Little & Co. appeared for the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

Mr. V. N. Chattrapati appeared for the pakka adatia.

Two 'Quake Shocks At Gauhati

GAUHATI, Jan. 11 (A. P. I.): Two earthquarke shocks, in quick succession this morning, shook Sarania Ashram where Mahatma Gandhi and party are staying. The shocks were experienced by the ashramites, including Gandhiji, at about 6.30, but before they could realise that these were earthquakes, the shocks were over. They lasted only a couple of seconds each.

PHEROZESHAH MEHTA COMMEMORATION

Mayor's Appeal For Funds

"The Special Fund started by me at the behest of the Bombay Municipal Corporation to commemorate the Birthday Centenary of the late Sir Pherozeshah Mehta by the establishment of a Chair in Civic and Politics in the University of Bombay has not yet had adequate response. As desired by the Corporation I had appealed to the Commercial and Industrial Organizations in the City and Business Houses to contribute liberally towards this laudable object. An appeal was also addressed by me to Government at the instance of the Corporation, but they have expressed their inability to contribute to the Endowment Fund. I am thankful to the various Associations and Business Houses and the Indian States who have sent their donations so far. The donations so far amount only to Rs. 1,27,000. In addition a sum of Rs. 1 lac has been voted by the Corporation bringing the total collections to Rs. 2,27,000. It is estimated that an amount of at least as 5 lacs will be required to establish the memorial. Citizens will therefore realise that a great leeway has to be made to reach the goal. It is not necessary for me to emphasise before the public of Bombay the great services rendered to the City and the country by the late Sir Pherozeshah. I therefore once again earnestly appeal to the citizens to contribute their mite to the Fund so that the scheme for the memorial can be taken in hand at an early date.

The following donations received so far are gratefully acknowledged:

Donations previously acknowledged Rs. 1,09,050-10-0, His Highness the Nawab Saheb Bahadur of Junagadh Rs. 10,000, The Empire of India Life Assurance Co., Ltd., Rs. 3,000, The Western India Match Co., Ltd. Rs. 1,000, The New India Assurance Co., Ltd., Rs. 1,000, His Highness the Maharaja of Morvi Rs. 1,000, The Tulsidas Gopalji and Dhakleshwar Temple Trust Rs. 1,000, The Kamla Mills, Ltd., Rs. 500, The Grass Merchants' Association, Rs. 301, Mrs. Dossibai Hormusji Sidhwa Rs. 151, Mr. D. # Explosions And After

Move For Lay-Out Of Affected Area On Modern Lines

BOMBAY, Friday.

The Administrative Report of the Municipal Commissioner for 1944-45 together with the review of the Standing Committee thereto is issued and will be considered by the Standing Committee of the Municipal Commissioner.

EXPLOSION OF 1944

Referring to the terrific explosion of 1944 the report states:

The terrific explosions in the Dock area on 14th April 1944 caused extensive damage to life and properties, especially in 'B' Ward. This gave an opportunity of improving the locality which was very congested and wherein, on account of high land values, improvement in the ordinary course in the shape of wide roads, additional open spaces, etc., would have been very slow and costly. Therefore, with a view to layout the devastated area on modern lines the Corporation decided to approach Government to apply the Town Planning Act, 1915, to the City of Bombay. As soon as Government sanction is obtained, preparation of the draft scheme will commence. In the meanwhile, to prevent rebuilding of properties in that area, the City of Bombay (Building Works Restriction) Act, 1944, was passed on 22nd December 1944.

SHOPS AND ESTABLISHMENTS ACT

During the year, 123 mass raids—67 by day and 56 by night—were carried out to help enforcement of the Act effectively in different parts of the City.

PUBLIC HEALTH

The total number of deaths registered from all causes during the year was 41,882 against 34,165 and 25,177 in 1943 and 1942, respectively. Of the total deaths 381 were due to explosions on 14th April 1944. This total number was 11,869 and 11,540 more than the annual average mortality of the last 5 and 10 years, respectively. The death rate per 1,000 living worked out to 28.1 according to the census of 1941 and came to about 18.3 according to the actual population, i.e., about 23 lacs. High rate of infantile mortality is said to be responsible for this increase, as nearly 50 per cent of the mortality is due to deaths of children below 5 years of age. As many as 27.6 per cent of deaths alone were among infant below 12 months. Of the total number of deaths, 23,131 and 18,751 were among males and females, respectively. The corresponding figures for the last two years were 19,167 and 14,309 for males and 14,998 and 10,868 for females. The male death rate showed an increase of 4 being 24 in 1944 against 20 in 1943 while the female death rate showed an increase of 7 being 34 in 1944 against 27 in 1943. As usual the diseases of the respiratory system were responsible for a higher death rate, viz., 9.4 per 1,000, than any other group. These diseases caused during the year 13,990 deaths against 7,740 in the previous year.

Mr. Vasantram Jamiatram presided at the meeting of the Standing Committee on Friday and it was resolved to approve of the report and forward it to the Corporation.

Gujarat Local Bodies To Be Restored

The Government of Bombay has decided that the local bodies in Gujarat which declined to function for political reasons and were, therefore, superseded should be restored at the earliest possible opportunity.

SIDDIQUE ALI QUITS PARLIAMENTARY BOARD

NAGPUR, Jan. 10 (U.P.I.): Nawab Siddique Ali Khan, M.L.A. (Central), has resigned the membership of the C. P. and Berar Provincial Muslim League Parliamentary Board due to differences with Syed Rouf Shah, President of the Provincial Muslim League.

NEW CHIEF OF MERCHANTS' CHAMBER

Mohamed Husein Hasham Premji Elected

Mr. Mohamed Husein Hasham Premji has been unanimously elected as the President of the Indian Merchants' Chamber for the year 1946.

Mr. Ratilal Mulji Gandhi has been unanimously elected as the Vice-President of the Indian Merchants' Chamber for the year 1946.

CURATOR DIES WITH SECRET

1,000-Year-Old Instrument Missing

LONDON, Jan. 11: The oldest dated scientific instrument in the world, an astrolabe bearing the date of 948 is among the ancient instruments missing from the Oxford University Museum. Astrolabes were used for taking the altitude of stars.

Unless the missing instruments can be found the Oxford collection will be of much less note.

When the war broke out, the Curator at the time, Dr. R. T. Gunther, decided to place these instruments and others in a safe storage. He died suddenly in March 1940, and left no clue to their whereabouts and the only other man who might have had a clue was the janitor, Albert Joyce, who died five weeks later. All inquiries have proved fruitless.

"THIS IS MOST VALUABLE WORK"

Viceroy Visits Poona Agricultural Training Centre

POONA, Jan. 10 (API). His Excellency the Viceroy, addressing the trainees of the Manjri Agricultural Training Centre, run by the Bombay Government which he visited today said that India needed more of such schools. His Excellency added "this is most valuable work you are doing for India."

The Training Centre was established in June 1944 on a plot of 64 acres for the training of agricultural assistants and kamgars required in connection with the post-war reconstruction schemes of the Bombay Government.

A few Maharatta ex-soldiers were amongst the batch receiving training at present, but it is intended that in future the centre will be primarily reserved for the training of ex-servicemen. During the training ex-servicemen will receive a stipend of Rs. 45 per month. In the next three years the centre will train 3,000 personnel who will then go on to work either on Government farms or districts where their training and knowledge may be profitably utilised for agricultural development.

Conference On Women In Industries & Professions

The Bombay Presidency Women's Council is holding a Conference on "Women in Industries, Trades and Professions" from 16th to 20th February, 1946.

The Council realises, that the mere giving of abstract rights of equality with men, to women is not sufficient in itself—and what is really required is equality of opportunity.

These rights of women must be ensured by affording them equally with men the right to work equal payment for work, rest and social insurance.

The war has shown the importance of women in the life and preservation of a nation. They proved under the most adverse circumstances their capacity for work, their skill in organisation and in executive, and no Society can now afford to neglect the life and growth of women.

With this view in mind, the Bombay Presidency Women's Council has organised this Conference to present information as to how women are dispersed in the various branches of work at present and to discover the potentialities for further employment of women.

The subjects under discussion will be Education, Medical, Nursing and Health Services, Social Work and New Careers for Women.

Govt.'s Grant To Calcutta Corporation

CALCUTTA, January 10 (API): A grant-in-aid of Rs. 13,51,200 to the Calcutta Corporation for the quarter ending March 1946 has been sanctioned by the Government of Bengal.

Brimful of Health and Vitality

NOTHING is more important to the enjoyment of life than good health. And good health is not just a matter of luck. On the contrary, we can all benefit in health if we first understand that nourishment is its main foundation.

But nourishment which is to build up and maintain the health, strength and vitality of brain, nerves and body must be adequate in quantity and correct in quality, and many ordinary foods do not fulfil these requirements. 'Ovaltine,' however, does provide complete and perfect nourishment. Indeed, it supplies in delicious concentrated form every nutritive element necessary to maintain health and strength at the highest level, and is accordingly of supreme value in making good the lack of balanced nourishment in our local foods. Drink a cup of 'Ovaltine' to-day and every day and thus make sure of vigorous health. Reject substitutes.

THE U.N.O. ASSEMBLY

The United Nations Organisation, brought into being at San Francisco, is now meeting in its first annual sessions at London. Nearly every delegate of the 51 nations has seen and experienced two great wars. This fact, namely, that the world was plunged into human and material devastation twice in one generation was emphasised by every speaker. That is the historical background against which the U.N.O. is meeting. Bitter lessons of horrible misery, failure of the League of Nations and betrayal of peace by those who were its custodians are there. They cry aloud against the evils that brought those cataclysmic wars namely, national selfishness and national greed. The nations assembled at London realize this. They say so, too.

But that has been said solemnly and eloquently for decades. Have they actually learnt the lesson, too? Mr. Attlee said in his welcome address: "...the affirmation of principles is easy, the making of a working reality out of the ideal is very difficult." It would not be very difficult were greed and selfishness understood as the fatal alternative to the very existence of the world. But those evils are still at work in the hearts and minds of "Big Power" statesmen. They talk ideals but pursue, in energetic and cynical practice, selfish nationalist and imperialist objectives politically or economically, in the name of "security" or "trust". The history of the last two wars threatens to repeat itself but they continue to play merrily the game of power politics and of the domination of the strong over the weak. It was, in fact, in evidence at the Assembly itself on its very first day. And, above all of them and the world, hangs the atom bomb. But what could be a greater tragedy than that its certain danger to the very existence of the world should be realised not so much in order to abolish that danger as to secure and safeguard individual national advantages? These are not unwarranted "pessimistic" reflections but grim realities. Statesmen of the world are faced with the issue of life and death. The Big Ones are dealing with it in the spirit which produced the last two wars and which, having divided the world virtually into master and slave, brought no peace or contentment to the mass of humanity. If the world is to be saved, humanity redeemed and freedom restored, that spirit will have to be changed.

A word about India's position. A writer in the British I.L.P. organ the "New Leader" has already correctly pointed out that the leaders of the 400 million people of India will not be there. India is not really represented at the U.N.O. Assembly. But Sir A. Ramaswamy Mudaliar has been put up by the Government of India—which is not Indian—to speak and act on behalf of this country. This is humiliating India before the world. But we have got to be interested in the work of Sir A. Ramaswamy because it involves this country even though in a manner to which it firmly objects. Sir Ramaswamy is reported by the United Press of America to have stated that India (sic) would seek representation on the Economic and Social Council as also on the Trusteeship Council and on the International Court, "but not on the Security Council." Not on the Security Council which is the real decisive executive body of the World Organisation! Why not? Why should not a country like India and with the second largest population of any country in the world, be on the Security Council? And why should Sir Ramaswamy adopt an attitude of self-confessed inferiority on behalf of India? He cannot, we take it, of his own accord have added this insult to his country. Evidently he is following the wishes of the British Government. Which further exposes the independence and representative character of the so-called Indian Delegation.

Wanted Explanation

The Government of Bombay owes an explanation to the public for suddenly amending the regulations relating to the preparation and sale of wheat-bread in the city and the suburban rationed area, in a manner calculated to enhance the already heavy cost of living. The Government appears to have yielded to the subtle agitation which has been going on for some time past behind the scenes in certain "high" European and Europeanised Indian social circles in the city for reversion to the "white bread" of the pre-war days in place of the whole-meal or "brown bread" which the citizens of Bombay have been accustomed to consume during the past three years. These "high" circles, with their "refined" tastes—physical and mental—have been unable to tolerate the whole-meal bread because of its rough texture and dark colour, which are so very "unfashionable" in their eyes. Whole-meal bread is acknowledged to be more nutritious and health-giving because of its greater vitamin and mineral content, while "white-bread", according to expert medical opinion, has distinctly lower biological value. But these considerations do not weigh with these fashionable circles. Though there had been an agitation in medical circles in England even before the outbreak of the last war for a legislative ban on "white-bread, it was not till the country was faced with the prospect of a serious shortage in wheat imports that the Government moved in the matter early in 1942 and prohibited the manufacture and sale of "white bread" and issued orders that henceforth no articles of food should be manufactured unless at least three-quarters of the flour contained in it consisted of flour of not less than 85 p.c. extraction. The move was warmly welcomed in medical circles. Lord Horder, the noted physician, observing in the House of Lords, that "no single step the Government could take with regard to the nation's food was so well calculated to raise the level of the nation". He also pointed out that in Eire it was illegal to sell bread made of flour of less than 93 p.c. extraction while South Africa had national wheat-meal with 99 p.c. extraction.

It is an admitted fact that the flour which produces "white bread" and which is obtained by milling wheat so as to eliminate its outer covering to the extent of some 27 p.c. of the grain, is deprived, in the process, of nearly all the vitamins present in wheat. According to "Monthly Science News", published by the British Council, these vitamins all belong to what is known as the vitamin B complex. They include vitamin B1 (the anti-beri beri vitamin), nicotinic acid (the anti-pellagra vitamin) and a certain amount of riboflavin. The British Government and following in its wake the Government of Bombay placed a ban on "white bread" and insisted on the manufacture of wholewheat flour mainly with a view to increase the quantity of flour available to the public so as to overcome the shortage in wheat imports. But the ban was a double blessing inasmuch as bread and other food products of a distinctly higher biological value were made available to the public. With the cessation of the war, however, the tendency thoughtlessly to revert to the fashionable fads of pre-war days is manifesting itself in this country. The present order of the Government of Bombay does not, it is true, lift the ban entirely on the pernitious "white bread", since the extraction of the bran from wheat by the millers is limited to "not less than 14 per cent and not more than 15 per cent", but knowing the ways of officialdom in this country, whose concern is to satisfy the clamour and whips of the "higher circles" of European and Europeanised society, in disregard of the requirements of the masses of the people, one has to guard against such a measure as the one just announced turning out to be the thin end of the wedge.

However, it is not merely because of the prospect of a salutary food reform being nullified by official surrender to the clamour of European and Europeanised circles, but because the new measure also artificially raises the cost of wheat and wheat products and inflicts needless hardship on the poor and middle classes who are already groaning under the intolerably high cost of living, that a protest requires to be made against the innovation. The official press note, it should be noted, justifies the enhancement of wholesale and retail prices of bread as well as of wheat, not on account of any threatened shortage in wheat imports, but on the ground of "lower extraction of flour". What necessity is there for permitting the millers to manufacture flour of lower extraction and thereby reducing the output of flour artificially? Has there been any widespread demand from the residents of the city for the innovation or has the Government merely yielded to the clamour of a coterie belonging to "fashionable society" which cares little for the hardships of the poor and middle class citizens? Could not the Government have waited till larger supplies of wheat became available, if they wanted to introduce the change. Then there would have been no necessity to raise the prices of bread and other wheat-products.

Frankly Speaking

Great News

There was a very disquieting report the other day that Chungking and Communist representatives had finally failed to agree and that the hopes of peace in China had been "blasted." We learn with profound relief that that report was entirely false. The representatives of the Central Government and the Communists have, in fact, agreed and the "Cease Fire" order has been given and is in force The news will be hailed with great delight by every friend of China. As we have had occasion to say, the civil war was but one of the hurdles. But it was the biggest and those who have succeeded in negotiating it, have shown both the determination and ability to conquer the rest also, easily and quickly and thus reach the goal of Chinese unity, glorious for that country and a great and inspiring blessing to the rest of Asia, too.

A Tug Of War

A tug of war is reported to be going on for some months past between the ruler of Rewa State, situated in Central India, and the British Resident stationed there. It would appear that the Maharaja, who holds enlightened views regarding the relations that should obtain between the ruler of a State and its people, announced, on the occasion of the "durbar" held on Dasara Day in October last, his desire to establish full responsible Government in the State immediately. He also announced that compulsory education would be introduced simultaneously. These announcements, it seems, were made by him without consulting the British Resident. The report goes that the Resident is mightily offended with the Maharaja on this account and wants the latter to withdraw the announcement forthwith, which the Maharaja has refused to do. Whether in consequence of such "disloyal" conduct, or for any other unknown reason it is reported that the Maharaja has been divested of his powers of control over the administration and that all sorts of restrictions are being sought to be imposed on him, including, strange to relate, compulsory exile from the State of his son and heir, who has received his education at the Rajkumar College and in England. This son, who had proceeded to Mysore, is, it is stated, being refused permission to return to the State so long as the Maharaja does not agree to the behests of the Political Department.

Strange Attitude

The Maharaja has already won the affection of his people by abolishing untouchability and otherwise ameliorating the lot of his Harijan subjects, reducing land tax, abolishing slavery, opening a number of schools and building a good many bridges and roads. But somehow, the British Resident and official circles in Delhi are reported to be frowning on the activities of the ruler. The All-India States Conference under the presidentship of Pandit Nehru, adopted a resolution welcoming the declaration of the Maharaja and suggesting that the Political Department of India, which is at present in control of the State Government, should take early steps to implement it. The attitude adopted by the Resident and the Political Department towards the enlightened move of the Maharaja is extremely strange, and calculated to rouse suspicion in the minds of the Indian public whether the British Government really wants democracy to advance in the Indian States or whether it wishes them to remain permanently steeped in autocracy.

Hindu Sabha To Contest Assembly Elections

At a meeting of the Working Committee of the Bombay Provincial Hindu Sabha held the presidentship of Raja Narayanlalji Pittie on the 10th inst., it was decided to contest the elections to the Provincial Assembly from Bombay City.

A parliamentary board of seven members was then constituted with Raja Narayanlalji Pittie as the Chairman, to select suitable candidates and to do the necessary propaganda and to direct and supervise the work connected with the elections.

"Attitudes And Latitudes"

By 'BIRBAL'

(The views expressed in this column are not always necessarily those of the Editor.—Editor "B. C.")

General Sir Frederick Morgan, Winston Churchill's mystery man during the Second Front preparations, has given the world a post war mystery to be excited about. It will be recalled that sometime ago the General, head of the U.N.R.R.A organization, announced that he was in possession of evidence to suggest an organised move towards a mass exodus of Jews from Europe. It might have been dismissed without much notice. But he committed the folly of asserting that the move was organised and lavishly financed from outside. That tore it. And the outcry over his statement has "got" Frederick Morgan. Having refused to resign, General Morgan has been recalled. An investigation has also to be made as regards his statement and it will further include an inquiry into the possible existence of anti-Semitism among UNRRA officials. 'Birbal' has an open mind so far as Morgan is concerned. His statement may be correct or not. But the terms of reference seem to be designed to divert attention from the main issue of Jews to heresy hunting in the UNRRA organization —and one-sided heresy-hunting at that since there is no inquiry into the existence of anti-Arab Zionism in it. The Morgan incident has directly and through its repercussions brought to the fore a number of questions, some of which will be answered but many others of great and vital importance will be conveniently left unanswered. There are, for instance, the statements of Mr. Riffkind, a pro-Zionist American official in Europe, and Mr. Eastman, London political secretary of the World Jewish Congress. Both agree that the Jews are fleeing,—fleeing as they believe, for their very lives—to the Anglo-American zones in Europe. Both agree that they are fleeing from Soviet occupied, Soviet dominated Poland, and both agree that Jews in Poland are being subjected to pogroms and atrocities. There thus 'is' an exodus in operation and —please don't blame 'Birbal'—it is forced into operation by what is being done to the Jews in the land blessed, nursed and looked after by Soviet Russia, Democracy and Freedom!

Driven out of Poland into the Anglo-American zones, a difficult and embarrassing situation, internally and internationally, is being solved by putting at least some proportion of the unwanted miserables into a pipe and pumping them into Palestine. This is not 'Birbal's' imagination. Hear Mr. Smertanko, British representative of the Hebrew League of Freedom, speaking of Jews moving "through a definite pipe-line" from Europe to Palestine. "I cannot" adds Mr. Smertanko, "let you into the secret of how Jews are getting to Palestine, but the pipe-line is working extremely well."

Put two and two together. The answer, with due deference to the Soviet Union, the friend of Poland and Britain and America, the friends of Palestine, is not five but —'Birbal' leaves the reader to guess it.

Acharya Versus Acharya

Two Acharyas have started controversy: Acharya Kripalani and Acharya Narendra Dev, members of the Working Committee of the Indian National Congress, have come out with contrary statements. "There can be only one party within the Congress as long as the freedom struggle lasts", observes the Allahabad Acharya: "The Congress has never been a political party and that has been its strength and vitality. Those who advocate that the Congress should be converted into a Party before independence is won are putting the cart before the horse", retorts the Benares Acharya. 'Birbal' has seen the birth of the Congress and has witnessed its growth and in fairness he must declare that History is on the side of Narendra Dev. If the Congress had really functioned as "only one party" Kripalani would never have been in it—much less would he be its General Secretary.

The Congress, as a National organization, embraces varying shades of opinions and even interests. Similar opinions are bound to coalesce into groups and parties. The Congress has always possessed the horse-sense never to ban such groupings and thus put, in Narendra Dev's picturesque phrase, the cart before the horse. Such groups have always existed and the Congress has been vitalised by them.

The inexplicable thing is the sudden outburst of the controversy. The Congress Socialist Party has been functioning for a dozen years, and only recently, while demanding its legalization the Congress President characterised it as an integral part of the Congress. If the Working Committee has not considered the question all these years—even when three leaders of the Party were members of the Committee—where is the occasion to consider it now when the Party is under Government ban and many of its leaders in detention?

The controversy is doubly unfortunate because the C.S.P. has been in cold storage for a long time and after the great events of 1942-44, many of its members have desired closer integration into the organizational fabric of the Congress. A growing collaboration between the Gandhites and the Socialists has been the insistent demand of the Congress rank and file. The new move of "one party" is not only contrary to the tradition of the Congress but is opposed to the basic urges of its members. Such controversies will solve no problems, they will create psychological barriers among Congress workers where none need otherwise exist.

We cannot assimilate the achievements of the I.N.A. and ignore Netaji Bose and his followers (at a mammoth meeting, recently convened by a Congress Committee, to felicitate the heroes of the INA. Subhas Chandra Bose was not mentioned even once) nor can we accept the gains of the 1942 upheaval and isolate the Socialists. Each forward step demands a wider and newer integration, to deny that is to fly in the face of the laws of progress and the logic of growth.

Is Subhas Alive?

Gandhiji thinks Subhas Babu is still alive and in hiding, Sarat Babu does not agree, while Shah Nawaz is inclined to consider it a case of wishful thinking. Really?

'Birbal' doesn't know what to think and is quite prepared to wait and let Time unfold its mysteries. He has a shrewd suspicion, however, that many political leaders who today mourn Subhas Babu's loss and sing his praises would be more than a little disconcerted if he were to turn up in flesh and blood. It's one of those cases where absence makes the heart grow fonder.

Orwell's Nightmare

George Orwell is nothing if not stimulating in his writing. His latest book, 'Animal Farm,' a political satire has won for him from literary critics comparison with the inimitable Dean Swift, and 'Birbal' heartily recommends his delightful parody on totalitarian Russia to all readers. Orwell's powers of prophecy are, however, still to be tried out. Writing in the British socialist weekly, 'Tribune', Orwell has forecast that 1946 will be for India one of "deadlock after deadlock rioting, civil disobedience derailment of trains, but no large scale revolt", and that "within a few months Pandit Nehru will announce that the Labour Party is worse than the Conservative Party." Satisfied as 'Birbal' is that there is no intention on the part of the British to transfer power to the Indian people, the prospect of one deadlock after another does not appear fanciful, while Orwell's reference to the "derailment of trains" would indicate his belief, that the Indian people are not going to take the Calcutta resolution of the Congress Working Committee too seriously. Orwell's nightmare appears to spring from the sub-conscious of a British Intellectual who is suffering from a guilty conscience.

"War Criminal" Mania

Faced with a domestic crime wave, Moscow continues busily to create new "Crimes". Protesting against freedom of the press in "Bourgeois" countries, a writer in the 'New Times' recently asked that "all dissemination of false news directed against the world (who is to decide what is "false"? Stalin?) should be held legally and criminally responsible." But now comes the latest Moscow definition of a "War Criminal" as anyone who held a high position in the political, civil, military, financial, industrial or economic life of Germany or one of its allies, co-belligerents or satellites. Just as simple as all that! And the Allied Control Council has accepted this definition and made it effective with the Happy New Year!

This development has finally reduced the Nuremberg Trials, already a manifestation of primitive persecution and vindictiveness to the level of a nauseating farce. The I.L.P. weekly, the 'New Leader,' correctly describes the Nuremburg 'tamasha' as "the trial of the losers by the winners in an imperialist fight-to-the finish" and "a monstrous precedent indicating glaringly the growing barbarism of our times." If the Socialist movements of the West were not themselves falling victims to this "growing barbarism" they would heed the warning voice of the 'New Leader' that "Socialists have other and more important things to do than whitewashing one Imperialist gang at the expense of another."

THE LATE KAVI NANALAL DALPATRAM

He Was One Of The Makers Of Modern Gujarati Language And Its Greatest Living Poet

(BY K. M. MUNSHI)

The death of Kavi Nanalal Dalpatram removes the greatest living poet in Gujarat and one of the leading poets of this country. Kavi Nanalal was a professor in the Rajkumar College at Rajkot, when he resigned during the first Non-Co-operation movement. Later on he separated from Gandhiji and for the last twenty-five years was solely devoting himself to literature. His last great desire was to write an epic on the style of Mahabharata. That work has been left unfinished.

LYRICAL GEMS

Nanalal had a very wide range in literature. He wrote lyrics, some of which were based on the famous lyrics or old Gujarat. Some of these reached a high water-mark of lyrical poetry in India, in which the sound and sense and brief experience were harmonised into a thing of perfect beauty. They were so true to the genius of Gujarati that they lose much of their flavour in translation. But nothing that is produced in modern Indian literature can excel some or the lyrical gems that Nanalal wrote. One of the most distinctive services that he rendered to modern Indian literature was to introduce a blank verse structured on a kind of rhythm. His work "Vasantotsav" captured the imagination of Gujarat by its exquisite beauty of the phrase. His first play "Jaya and Jayant" placed Nanalal at the head of living Gujarati poets. His later plays in the same style are not stageable. They lack in characterisation and action, but they are a remarkable contribution to modern Indian literature. In these plays Nanalal has turned out paragraphs of inimitable picturesqueness. The plays cover a large variety of subjects from Bharat and Buddha to Akbar. Many of them, however, are more rhapsodic than dramatic. Nanalal had a great gift of translating Sanskrit classical works, and his line to line translation of the "Bhagavad Gita" and "Meghdoot" have almost the charm of originals.

Nanalal has also written on a variety of topics in prose, including a biography of his father, the poet Dalpatram, who has been characterised as the last of the medieval poets of Gujarat. His prose was exuberant, over-picturesque, some times even an aggregate of striking phrases.

MAKER OF MODERN GUJARATI LITERATURE

Nanalal will live in history as one of the makers of modern Gujarati language and literature. He has given a plasticity and expressiveness to the language as no one before him had done. His "garbis" will live for ever and he will be handed down to posterity as a poet whose single-minded devotion to literature was unquestioned. Nanalal though admired as a poet was unpopular in life. He was strong minded. A man of great prejudices, he was sometimes eccentric. When he left the circle dominated by Gandhiji, he became its bitterest critics. Towards some of the leading literary men in Gujarat his attitude was highly critical and pugnacious, but he considered the creation of poetic beauty as his mission and it is no exaggeration to say that some of his lyrics at any rate will live for ever.

COURT CAUSERIE

By

NESTOR

In a recent 'habeas corpus' application by a Poona Congressman, Mr Justice Kania gave a halting decision which though correct, was, we think, based on a wrong ground. In the order of detention it was stated that it was necessary to detain the detenu Narayan Ganesh Gore with a view to prevent him from acting in a manner prejudicial to public safety and the maintenance of public order. But in the grounds of detension served upon him under section 7 of the Restriction and Detention Ordinance under which he was detained, it was stated that he was being detained because he "actively supported and helped the underground organisation of the mass movement sanctioned by the Congress in the resolution of 8th August 1942 which was calculated to impede the successful prosecution of the war.' On behalf of the petitioner-detenu it was contended that his detention was illegal and could not be said to be bona fide because the grounds of detention of which he was informed under section 7 of the Ordinance were different from those mentioned in the order of detention itself. Instead of holding that a ground of detention in terms falling under a particular head of the Ordinance may also fall under some other heads of that Ordinance, Mr. Justice Kania sought to decide the case on a distinction between "successful prosecution of the war" as stated in the grounds of detention, and "efficient prosecution of the war" as stated in the six.h head under the Detention Ordinance, which we think was a distinction without difference. Mr. Justice Kania pointed out this distinction and relied on it for holding that the ground of detention could in view of this difference in terminology, be said to apertain to the second and third heads mentioned in the Ordinance, and not to the sixth head only. By itself the word "successful" is certainly different in meaning from the word "efficient." But when one has regard to the state of things prevailing before the war actually ended, it is difficult to concieve how the war could be prosecuted successfully without its being prosecuted efficiently .In the context, therefore, the two words meant very much the same thing. We fail to understand why the judge refrained from going the whole half and left the question open as to whether or not the position would be the same if the grounds furnished had been in terms identical with a head different from that mentioned in the order of detention. We cannot help feeling that the judge should have boldly decided the case on that footing rather than on the ground on which he did though in our opinion the decision should still have been the same.

The Vanity Of Years

The vanity of human nature asserts itself whenever it gets an opportunity. It is a common weakness among counsel to make frequent references to their own seniority. "My lord, in my....years' practice at the Bar I have never come across...." is the usual form in which this vant exhibits itself. We need only remind those who are in the habit of thus parading their seniority of the curt reply it once evoked from Mr Justice Broomfield. "Mr.....the Court is not concerned with your seniority" Like all forms of vanity, it affects others disagreeably and it is to be hoped that our judges will do their best to discourage it.

* * *

Unification Of The Bar

The remarks made by Mr. Justice Divatia on the eve of his retirement with regard to the duay system though rather out-of-place in reply to a farewell address by the Bar, deserve careful consideration. He was of opinion that whatever its justification in the past, the division of the Bar into Counsel who alone would practice on the Original side, and Advocates was an anachorism which should be abolished, while retaining the distinction prevailing on the Original sid ebetween Attorneys and the Bar which had its utility as well as its efficiency. There is no reason why those who have passed the Bar examination in England which is certainly not more difficult than our LL.B. examiatnon, should be placed on a higher footing than our Advocates who are not allowed to practise on the Original side of the High Court. At the same time one cannot overlook the fact that the general standard of Advocates practising on the Appellate side and in the mofussil is none too high, and the token examination newly introduced by the Bar Council has certainly not improved matters. Without conceding that the distinction prevailing on the Original side between Attorneys and the Bar deserves to be retained we are of opinion that if Mr. Justice Divatia's suggestion is to be accepted and the Bar alone is to be unified, the best course would be to make the passing of a uniform examination of the standard of the Advocates (O.S.) examination compulsory both for Barristers and LL.Bs alike before they are allowed to start practising in our courts.

Wadi For Parsis

The trustees of what was once known as the "Botawalla Wadi" at Khetwadi which they held upon trust for the performance of weddings and other ceremonies and for the holding of dinners for Parsis recently approached the High Court for the cy pres application of the sale-proceeds of that Wadi for other analogous purposes. The Wadi had been sold in June 1938 with the sanction of the court, as the Parsi population of the locality had dwindled and it had fallen into disuse The trustees stated to the court that they felt that there was no need for an additional Wadi for Parsis in Bombay. The existing two Wadis the Albless Baug and the Cama Baug are both out of date and are certainly not situated in pleasant surroundings It surprises us that the trustees should have felt these two Wadis as adequate for the needs of a fashionable community like the Parsis for ceremonious occasions. We are glad to find that the Trustees of the Parsi Panchayat at Bombay whose opinion in the matter the judge was good enough to invite, were of the some views as ours The Parsi Panchayat however, felt that the sale-proceeds of 'Batliwalla Wadi' were inadequate to provide the ame-Under the circumstances the judge nity of a new and up-to-date Wadi. authorised the trustees to use the funds in their hands cy pres for providing cheap residential quarters for Parsis.

From the strictly legal point of view it is difficult to justify the cy pres application of trust funds unless the original purpose has become almost impossible and the trust discloses a general charitable intention. # Britain Guilty Of Monstrous Denial Of Democracy

Real Leader Of 400,000,000 People Not Invited To United Nations Assembly

LONDON, Jan. 11. (U. P. I.)

"One of the most cynical reflections upon the General Assembly of the United Nations Organization is that Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the real leader of something like four hundred million people will not be there to speak. For, Pandit Nehru's four hundred millions are not granted the rights to resolve their own destinies. How can Mr. Ernest Bevin plead for International Democracy while his Government is responsible for this monstrous denial of Democracy?", declares Mr. Douglas Rogers in an editorial article in the "New Leader", organ of the Independent Labour Party.

Mr. Rogers adds: "If Mr. Bevin would honestly declare that it was his intention to liquidate the British Imperialism with the utmost haste he would win the goodwill of hundreds of millions of human beings".

INDIA'S FLAG MISSING

India's helpless position was a glaring feature of the first meeting of the United Nations which opened here yesterday afternoon in the historic centre of Westminster.

Fifty-one flags adorned the Central Hall and the Delegations passed by them in solemn reverence. India, however, had no flag of her own. In keeping with her dependent position she has been allotted comparatively an insignificant place in the sitting arrangements in the Hall.

The "United Press of India" political correspondent's lobby talks with various delegations reveal surprise as to why the member of the Indian Delegation was not selected from amongst the members of the newly elected Central Assembly so that they could have represented India much more adequately in the United Nations Assembly with the backing of their people.

Opening the historic session, the British Prime Minister, Mr. Attlee, spoke like a man in the street with subdued tones and without emotion. His speech was utterly colourless and the only applause his speech evoked was when he sat down.

SHARP DIFFERENCES

The first day's meeting was marked by a sharp difference between the U. S. S. R. and other Delegations in regard to the election procedure of the Session. Contrary to the generally accepted nominations of the Belgian representative. M. Spaak, for the Presidency, he was opposed by the Russian Delegation and M. Tazini's name was proposed instead. A secret ballot, however, revealed an overwhelming majority in favour of the Belgian representative.

The election of the Secretary General of the U. N. O. will take place today when further fireworks are expected.

"JAI HIND" SHOULD NOT REPLACE "VANDE MATARAM"

Mahatma's Advice On Greetings By Girl Volunteers In Assam

GAUHATI, Jan. 11 (A.P.I.): "Jai Hind" should not replace "Vande Mataram", said Mahatma Gandhi, addressing a huge gathering assembled to attend his prayer meeting at the local Jubilee Park yesterday.

Gandhiji added that the word which Subhas Babu uttered was very pleasant to hear. But by this people should not forget "Vande Mataram" which was being uttered since the inception of the Congress. First the, should say "Vande Mataram" a' then "Jai Hind."

Mahatma Gandhi was greeted by some girl volunteers with "Jai Hind" as he arrived at the prayer groun Referring to this Gandhiji in his speech after the prayer said that he would wholeheartedly return that greeting but it ought not to be the exclusion of "Vande Mataram". If they could discard "Vande Mataram" which had such tradition of sacrifice behind it, he was afraid they would one day discard 'Jai Hind' also.

Gandhiji reiterated his belief that Subhas Babu was not dead but was hiding somewhere and said that if he could communicate with Subhas Babu he was sure the latter would endorse him in his view about "Vande Mataram."

Earlier in his speech Gandhiji congratulated the gathering on the beautiful way in which they had followed 'Ram Dhun'. Particularly he was pleased that women had wholeheartedly joined in it without any feeling of false shame. In taking the name of God, hesitation and fear as well as false shame were equally out of place. The man who had the realisation of God who dwelt in the hearts of all beings should know no fear.

The Director of Public Health, Assam, Major T. D. Ahmed met Mahatma Gandhi during his morning walk through village Sarania this morning, and had a talk on the general health of the people of provinces.

BELL METAL WORKERS' PRESENT

Citizens of Sarthebari in Kamrup District yesterday presented Mahatma Gandhi with a set of bell metal utensils for exhibition in some national museum, preferably at Wardha. Gandhiji evinced keen interest in their industrial enterprise and it is learnt that he agreed to keep those utensils at the Wardha Museum.

VILLAGERS DISAPPOINTED

GAUHATI, Jan. 11 (U.P.I.): About 100 political sufferers of the August 1942 movement arrived here from different districts to meet Mahatma Gandhi at the Workers' Conference

Nearly 1,000 volunteers including women volunteers were at work from the time of Gandhiji's arrival. Volunteers have been divided into six brigades, Gandhi, eNhru, Subhas Lakshmi, Kanaklata and the Red Cross.

Yesterday aftrnoon a big crowd of several thousands of men, women and children from the tribal areas gathered at Mohan Ashram, 39 miles from Gauhati and Rampur, 20 miles from Gauhati, eagerly awaiting the arrival of Gandhiji. Huts were built and decorated lavishly but to the disappointment of the people assembled, Gandhiji visited neither of the places. It transpired that visits to both the places were contemplated in the earlier programme but were abandoned when Gandhiji revised the plan at Sodepur. Mr. Gopinath Bordoloi intimated both the places about the latest decision, but the people did not take it seriously.

Representatives of these places later met Mahatma Gandhi at Sarabhia Ashram and acquainted him with the misunderstanding. Gandhiji is reported to have expressed regret at the incident and added that if he had his past energy, he would certainly have visited their villages

Mohan Ashram is an important centre of education for the tribal people including women and Rampur is a centre of the All-India Spinners' Association and is famous for its silk industry.

Teachers and students, women and children, Harijan workers and Harijans and Labour welfare workers and Labourers—these would be the four subjects that would be dealt with a the four conventions.

It is announced that Gandhiji has made it clear that he would be available for any work connected with any public function between 2 P. M. and 5 P. M. only everyday. And all functions are being arranged accordingly.

"Muslims Ready To Shed Blood For Pakistan"

But Jinnah Says The Time Has Not Yet Come And Asks For Only Votes For Leaguers

NEW DELHI, Jan. 11. (A.P.I.): Mr. M. A. Jinnah, President of the All-India Muslim League, declared today that the Mussalmans were a powerful, well-organised and determined nation and were prepared even to shed their blood for Pakistan. "But", said Mr. Jinnah "that time has not yet come. Today we are fighting the elections and I want the Mussalmans not to shed their blood but only to cast their votes for Pakistan and the Muslim League. When the time comes for sheding blood, we shall be ready for it".

Mr. Jinnah was addressing a meeting of about 50,000 persons held here to celebrate the victory of the Muslim League in the Central Assembly elections.

GREATER THAN HITLER AND MUSSOLINI

Mr. Jinnah said that the cent per cent success of the Muslim League in the Central Assembly elections was unprecedented in the history of any country or nation.

"Even mighty dictators like Hitler and Mussolini who had the Gestapo and concentration camps at their disposal to terrorise the people and suppres democratic dissent, failed to achieve the glorious success which greets us today".

Mr. Jinnah said that the verdict of the elections had conclusively proved that the Muslim masses were with the Muslim League. "Let those who lay the charge at our doors, that the Muslim League is an organisation of titled gentry, open their eyes and see this huge gathering. How many of the people assembled here are Khan Bahadurs? An organisation of Khan Bahadurs cannot electrify and command the allegiance of so many thousands of people".

'MASSES BEHIND LEAGUE'

Mr. Jinnah went on: "The Muslim masses are behind us today. Without them neither I nor anybody else could have achieved anything. If the Mussalmans stand united under one flag with the grim resolve to sacrifice everything for Pakistan, then we shall surely achieve it. We must realise the stakes for which we are fighting. This is a question of life and death for Mussalmans. Failure to achieve Pakistan would mean our national extinction. In this hour of trial, it is the supreme duty of every Mussalman, whatever be his station in life, to mobilise himself in the cause of the Muslim League and Pakistan and not rest content until final victory has been won".

Mr. Jinnah said: "We have won the first round and I hope and pray to God that the same success will greet us in the Provincial elections also".

Referring to the visit of the Parliamentary Delegation, Mr. Jinnah said: "Many things are happening and the Parliamentary Delegation is also here. We will deal with the Delegation successfully.

Mile-Long Procession In City On League Victory Day

BOMBAY, Friday.

In Bombay the League Victory Day was celebrated with gaiety. In Muslim localities about 700 gates and arches were erected. Till late in the night, knots of people gathered and chatted under the gates and arches, after a crowded programme of processions, a rally and a meeting.

In the morning the Bombay District Muslim Students' Federation took a procession from the Federation office. After passing through some localities it wended its way through Bhindi Bazar at 11 O'clock. Bhindi Bazar was most gaily decorated with flags and buntings. There were a number of colourful gates, the most impressive being "Bab-e-Amiri-e-Pakistan." (Gate of the Chief of Pakistan).

The procession was peaceful. The students raised Pakistan slogans. A number of placards bearing different slogans were seen. Just near a placard bearing "Pakistan or Perish" was seen a mounted gun heavily tarred and wheeled along by a couple of volunteers. As the procession passed traffic was held up for a considerable time. Immediately after it reached Mastan Talao—final destination—there was flag hoisting ceremony.

MILE-LONG PROCESSION

In the afternoon a mile-long procession headed by Mr. I. I. Chundrigar, President of the Bombay Provincial Muslim League, and Mr. Hasan A. Shaikh, Secretary was taken through different Muslim residential quarters of Bombay. The procession culminated at Kaiser Bagh.

The meeting was addressed by Mr. Chundrigar.

Mr. Chundrigar paid tribute to Mr. Jinnah and said that after the memorable day of "deliverance" today's "victory-day" held to celebrate the success of Muslim League candidates in the elections was an unprecedented event which would be recorded in the history of Mussalmans of India.

He said that the Muslims had now realised that their effort to have a separate State for themselves was not futile.

Earlier, Mr. Beg Mohammed, President of the Muslim Students' Federation, unfurled the League Flag at Mastan Talao.

BQY INJURED

At about 11-30 p.m. a group of boisterous children boarded a tram near the Grant Road Bridge shouting the Pakistan slogans. As the tram neared Gol Pitha one of the boys leaned out of the window while the other children danced and shouted. A tram coming from the opposite direction hit the boy peering out of the window and he fell bleeding and unconscious and had to be removed to the hospital.

Jinnah's 'Victory Day' Message

NEW DELHI, Jan. 10 (A.P.I.): In a "victory-day" message, Mr. M. A. Jinnah says:

I congratulate the Mussalmans who are going to celebrate the unique victory, on the 11th of January, in the first round of the battle of election to the Central Assembly. The cent percent success is unparalleled in the history of any country or any nation. I am happy that Muslim India has rallied completely under the flag of the All-India Muslim League and it is our grim determination to achieve Pakistan.

On this day of this glorious victory, I say to those concerned with the future of India: Do not think you can trifle with us or manoeuvre and resort to machinations in order to get the Muslims to accept anything but the establishment of Pakistan which is the only solution of India's constitutional problem and will lead to peace, security and prosperity of Pakistan and Hindustan.

The Muslim Nation has already given its verdict and it will face all consequences and obstacles and make every sacrifice that it may be called upon to do. We mean what we say and will not be deviated by any threats, manoeuvres and machinations on the part of the Congress or the British Government. We will face any and every opposition at all costs.

There remains for us to march forward and sweep the Provincial polls as we have already done and won the first round of the Central Assembly elections. Ours is a grim determination. There is no illusion and there should be nobody under any delusion about our stand for the establishment of Pakistan at any cost, whatever the opposition.

ASSAM WOMEN VOTE SOLID FOR CONGRESS

Two Of Himmatsingka's Opponents Lose Deposits In Commerce Constituency

SHILLONG, Jan. 11. (U.P.I.): IT IS CLEAR THAT CONGRESS VICTORY CAN DEFINITELY BE FORECAST FOR THIS PROVINCE'S ONLY WOMAN SEAT IN THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, POLLING FOR WHICH WAS HELD HERE YESTERDAY AMIDST UNPRECEDENTED JUBILATION.

A notable feature of the election was the very large support given by Khasi women and other tribal ladies for the Congress nominee, Mrs. Bonelly Khongmen, herself a tribal lady, who contested by Miss Mavis Dunn, ex-Minister and Mrs. Ewlena Taylor, the former booking support from the Muslim League.

The Congress nominee is believed to have secured about 60 per cent of total votes polled, which again is about 60 per cent of total votes in the roll.

First in India to come to polling booths in the present provincial elections, Assam allowed women to go to the polls first and Women voted almost solidly for the Congress, although the constituency had major proportion of voters from minor tribal and backward constituencies.

The counting of votes takes place to-morrow.

Members of the newly formed organisations—the Subhas and Rani of Jhansi Brigades, were seen escorting women to the polling booths to vote for Congress candidates.

NEW MENACE TO FREE THOUGHT AND SPEECH

Masani Characterises Soviet Vituperation Against Subhas And Indian Journals As Indicative Of A Disordered Mind

BOMBAY, Jan. 11 (A.P.I.)—Mr. M. R. Masani, M.L.A. (Central) commenting on the Moscow Newspaper "Pravda's" attack on Subhas Chandra Bose and two Indian newspapers said Zaslavaski had chosen to describe Babu Subhas Chandra Bose as a "Fascist rogue" and "would-be Quisling", while the Indian journalists concerned had been referred to as "dishonest buffoons" and "newspaper bandits."

"Such intemperate language is an indication of a disordered mind. It is amusing to note that the papers referred to were Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru's "National Herald" and Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherji's 'Nationalist", Mr. Masani added.

SOVIET RECORD

"The Russians evidently do not know," continued Mr. Masani, "the old proverb that those who live in glass houses should not throw stones at others. Subhas Babu's patriotic motive is accepted by all Indians, but in any event who are the Russians to throw a stone at him? Their record of collaboration with the Nazis and the Japanese stands unbeaten in the world. The Stalin-Hitler Pact, which let war loose on the world, has been explained away by apologists as mere tactics on the part of Russia. That it was nothing of the kind but a genuine alliance is amply evidenced by the terms of the subsequent Treaty of Friendship signed at Moscow on September 28, 1939."

Mr. Masani pointed out that by Article 5 of that Treaty, the German and Russian Governments declared that by the partition of Poland they had "created a firm foundation for a lasting peace in Eastern Europe" and expressed the opinion "that the liquidation of the present war between Germany on the one hand and Great Britain on the other is in the interests of all nations." In case their efforts to liquidate the war failed, it was declared "that Great Britain and France bear responsibility for the continuation of war and in the event of the continuation of the war the Governments of Germany and the U.S.S.R. will consult each other on the necessary measures."

This Treaty was followed by an economic agreement under which Russia supplied Germany with raw materials in furtherance of the common purpose.

"MATTER OF TASTE"

When astonished press correspondents asked Molotov a few days later how this alliance between Fascism and Communism could be justified. Molotov remarked with a shrug of the shoulders that the choice of these labels was "a matter of taste."

So thick was this collaboration between Germany and Russia that on 2nd February 1940, Walter Ulbricht, the German Communist leader, now ruling the roost in Berlin, called upon German communists in an article in "Die Welt," a party paper, to stop any misguided Democrats or Socialists from obstructing the German war effort. This was in effect an invitation to hand people over to the Nazi Gestapo.

As for the Japanese, who does not remember that Stalin went to the railway station and gave a very comradely embrace to M. Matsuoka, the Japanese Foreign Minister, when the latter was on his way home from Berlin? It was only Hitler's attack on Russia which enabled the Russian Government to make a virtue of its anti-Fascist neccessity.

A NEW MENACE

Zaslavski had presumed to refer to "the political jungle of India" and the necessity of "newspaper bandits" abounding in it being "sternly tried in court." The Russian scribes had evidently yet to learn that Indians could not be bullied and browbeaten by imperialists, whatever their nationality. It was to be hoped, concluded Mr. Masani, that those who had hitherto harboured illusions and lived in the clouds would now realise that a new menace to free thought and free speech faced the world today.

IT IS ALL 'JAI HIND'

LAHORE, Jan. 11 (U.P.I.)—An interesting scene was witnessed in the Ritz Cinema last evening when a few college students shouted "Jai Hind" at a remark made by one of the actors in the picture. The students' shouts of "Jai Hind" were spontaneously followed by all the more vociferous shouts of "Jai Hind" from all directions in the hall. At this a middle-aged man sitting by the students remarked: "Misdirected enthusiasm" to which the students replied: "No, it is the expression of the nation's will to be free."

Punished For Shouting "Jai Hind"!

(From Our Correspondent)

ALLAHABAD, Jan. 10.

One student in the local Sarjupari Anglo Vernacular High School responded to the Roll Call with "Jai Hind." On hearing this the class teacher beat the student and fined him heavily.

At Allahabad University also one lecturer has turned out the student from the class for responding the Roll Call with "Jai Hind."

CUBA RAISES CONTROVERSY

two wars we did not succeed in forming the international spirit. That is what is essential. It is essential if we are to work to succeed."

A great effort was required in an Assembly like the U.N.O. to set aside differences. Urging that the Assembly collectively represented the interests of the whole, M. Spaak stressed that "the views taken must be free, and the decisions once taken must be accepted, and we must do our very best to implement them.

"We expect an honest, secure and lasting peace."

M. Spaak concluded with these words: "For years millions have suffered and sacrificed—we now ask for their reward: PEACE."

Mrs. Roosevelt, sitting among the United States Delegation in the main body of the hall, listened to M. Spaak's tribute to her late husband with her hands resting on the table before her and looking straight at the speaker.

The whole Chamber sat motionless in attention throughout the President's address, the only movement being the quick departure of a reporter or the shifting of an onlooker in the public gallery.

FEARS OF SMALL NATIONS

With an unexpected burst of speed, the Assembly then raced through the first stages of immediate business in hand. In rapid succession a motion to appoint an Executive Secretary and staff to perform the functions of the Secretary-General until the elections of the latter, was passed; the report of the Preparatory Commission presented by the Commission's Chairman, the Colombian delegate, Dr. Eduardo Zuleta Angel, was received, and the Cuban delegate, Dr. Guy Perez Cizeros, ascended the rostrum to speak in defence of a proposed Cuban amendment.

Prompted by small nations' fear that important political decisions might be taken by the small General Committee consisting of only fourteen members, the amendment urges the setting up of a Committee of fifty-one members representing all the Delegations to the Assembly with strict limitation laid on its functions.

Announcing that his amendment had sympathetic support of the Soviet Union, Dr. Perez said this was the question which concerned the very spirit of the United Nations. "We must protect the Assembly," he urged.

A Committee of Fifty-one members would be more efficient and work in a better atmosphere of friendship, he said. The Executive Committee of Fourteen could work under the General Committee "but if we take the present draft as it stands, I fear it may be dangerous."

TWO ISSUES

With this speech the Cuban delegate flung the Assembly straight into discussion on two controversial questions—with rapid exchanges, a confusing succession of arguments and counter-arguments and strong presidential intervention to keep the proceedings in hand.

The two points at issue were:—

(1) Should the General Committee—the one which will govern the conduct of the UNO—consist of fifty-one members representing all the Delegations, or only fourteen as proposed by the Preparatory Commission?

(2) Should the delegates who are elected for office inside the UNO be nominated before the Assembly votes on their candidature?

The second point was raised suddenly, during the debate on the Cuban amendment, by M. Dmitri Manuilsky, Head of the Soviet Ukrainian Delegation, in a five-minute attack on yesterday's procedure over the election of the President.

SOVIET PROTEST

M. Manuilsky went to the Speaker's rostrum to declare his support for the proposal by M. Spaak to adopt the drafted rules of procedure provisionally and meanwhile refer them to a Committee for further examination. Speaking in French, he then changed the issue and declared that even the press had had more opportunity of discussing the candidatures than the delegates in the Assembly. Referring evidently to the fact that President Spaak was yesterday elected without being nominated or proposed by anyone, M. Manuilsky described this as a method "contrary to general practice." This was unfortunate and tended to impair the dignity of the Assembly. He declared he wanted to avoid a repetition of this and suggested a provision in the rules to the effect that each candidate "should be brought forward at the meeting and that discussion should take place before the vote is taken—except in case where the Assembly unanimously decided to "by acclamation."

ASSEMBLY WITHOUT RULES

In the sudden spurt of debating which followed, M. Manuilsky's speech, the Cuban delegate refused to agree to M. Spaak's proposal to refer the question of Rules to a Committee. "The Assembly cannot begin unless it has fully established a set of Rules," he declared.

The British Minister of State, Mr. Noel Baker a member of the United Kingdom Delegation, came to M. Spaak's rescue with the plea that only a relatively small Committee could effectively deal with the business arising every day. Mr. Noel Baker said the Cuban delegate evidently feared that the five great Powers might dominate a small Committee and take political decisions which ought to be decided by the Assembly. But the General Committee was excluded by the Rules from discussion of questions of major political importance, Mr. Noel Baker said.

The Cuban delegate then demanded a time limit of a week for the work of the Committee which was to examine the Rules and report to the Assembly.

CUBAN SCORES

Intervening to clarify the position, M. Spaak proposed a vote on his proposal to refer the Rules to a Committee and meanwhile accept them provisionally. The Ukrainian delegate, seconding this proposal, reserved his right to revive the question of yesterday's presidential election at a future opportunity.

Again the Cuban delegate jumped up and as a result of his speech the Assembly voted first on the new motion by him imposing a week's time-limit on the Committee. Twenty-nine votes against 18 with four abstentions carried this motion, though the show of the hands was so reluctant that the result had to be ascertained by country by country roll call.

Mr. Noel Baker, speaking for Britain, said in clear voice ("No," whereas Mr. James F. Byrnes, United States Secretary of State, sitting right behind him announced crisply "Yes." After a brief pause the name of Soviet Russia was called and the Soviet Ambassador to America, M. Andri Gromyko, murmured a barely audible "No."

Most of the South American countries, including Argentina, Chile, Ecuador, Venezuela and Nicaragua voted in favour of the Cuban delegate's second amendment.

South Africa, India, France, Turkey and Britain were among those who voted against.

United States voted in favour.

CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

Late business transacted before the morning session closed included a proposal by the President for constition of the Credentials Committee. M. Spaak suggested that the delegates of the following countries should be represented on the Committee: China, Philippines, France, Denmark, Byelorussia, Paraguay, Saudi Arabia and Turkey.

He proposed that the Danish delegate Gustav Rasmussen, Danish Minister for Foreign Affairs, should be elected Chairman of the Credentials Committee.

There were three other decisions before the morning adjournment:

(1) At M. Spaak's suggestion the Assembly's agenda, as at present drafted, was unanimously approved.

(2) Supplementary list of questions including a last-minute Philippine proposal for an International Press Conference to ensure a Free Press throughout the world is to be referred to the General Committee for examination

(3) Times were fixed for this afternoon's meetings of six Assembly Committees.

Here is a picture that carries great appeal for women, depicting as it does the courage of their sex.

Nurjehan plays the name role in a cast containing many old-timers like Shah Nawaz, Bibbo and Yakub.

DETECTIVE THRILLER

Pancholi's DHAMKI is probably the first Indian film in which a murder mystery is made the entire basis of the plot, and the 'art' of the detective is glamourised.

Ragini, favourite of the Pancholi studio, is the heroine of the film. Handsome Alnasir plays the male lead. These two supply the love interest which is closely woven into the thriller.

The direction of Ravindra Dave is described as being particularly clever by those who have seen the film. The musical score of the picture was composed by Pundit Amarnath.

A JAMUNA VEHICLE

"Suleh" has for its central figure a shrew, whose lover marries her because of her wealth, hoping thereby to be of assistance to his poor father, who, however scorns his son's end. How the haughty young wife is brought to her senses provides material for the rest of the story.

Jamuna, with her natural hauteur, fits well into the chief role. Opposite her is Ahindra Choudhari.

"Suleh" was directed by Apurba Mitter and is embellished with the songs and dialogue of Pandit Narottam Vyas.

ACHARYA'S "PARISTAN" RELEASED

Last Thursday, producer N. R. Acharya's latest comedy opened at the Swastik.

"Paristan" sets out to prove that man is indispensable to woman—and vice versa. To drive home this point, the female characters in the story have been depicted as ardent feminists who, in the end, realise that the male of the species is necessary to complete their happiness.

The theme of the story provides many mirth-provoking situations which lead up to a hilarious climax.

Mahesh Kaul wielded the megaphone for this picture which contains Pahari Sanyal and Anjali Devi in the stellar roles, supported by Ranjit Kumari, Padma Bannerji and Kamal Zamindar.

PREMIERE OF "RATTAN"

On the screen of the Imperial was flashed, on Friday, a picture that according to advance reports, has gained much popularity in the North: "Rattan" which presents a story from the pen of Chowdhury. The central characters are two lovers whom the prejudices of orthodoxy prevent from uniting. The film also provides an indictment of the social evil of marriage between persons of greatly varying ages.

Old favourites bedeck the cast of "Rattan": Swarnalata, Wasti, Kiran Diwan, Rajkumari Shukla, Gulab and Badriprasad.

To ensure the picture popularity among the masses, many songs have been introduced into it.

ANOTHER RANJIT RELEASE

Close on the heels of "Chand Chakori" comes yet another picture from Ranjit—"PRABHU KA GHAR" or "God's Home."

This photoplay tries to solve the problem: Where does God reside? Is He merely in temples built by human hands? Is He with the rich or with the poor? The solution—God's omnipresence—is unfolded through the simple vision of a village girl.

Kurshid plays the lead in this picture, with Trilok Kapoor enacting the role of her lover. Kurshid has, of course, been made to warble quite a number of ditties in the film. Sulochana Chatterji and Bipin Gupta are also in the cast.

Vajahat Mirza directed "Prabhu-ka-ghar" which contains the music of Bulo C. Rani and Khemchand Prakash, and will be screened this evening at the Royal Opera House

STRONG EUROPEAN TEAM TO MEET HINDUS TODAY

KHOT'S BOWLING FEAT AGAINST REST

(By Our Cricket Critic)

Thanks to the devastating bowling of Jehangir Khot, who disposed of the second half of the Rest team at the expense of 15 runs in all on Friday morning the Parsis won the first match of the Pentangular Cricket Tournament by an innings and 121 runs. Rarely have I seen such a poor performance as the Rest players put up in every department of the game.

I should not be at all surprised if a match is staged between them and—say, the Inter-Collegiate Champions' St. Xavier's College,—nor to speak of the Bombay team for the Inter-Varsity competition, the collegians beat them hollow. I should like to know on what grounds the supporters of communal cricket claim these players or the team among the cream of Indian Cricket. Any way, the public told them in unmistakable terms—by showing the empty stands—what they thought of the match and its participants!

HINDU POTENTIAL

The second match between the Hindus and Europeans will begin today. Although the former have been deprived of the services of four of their brightest stars in Amarnath, C. S. Naidu, Sarwate and Adhikari they have still succeeded in puting up a fairly strong combination under the leadership of Vijay Merchant, their old skipper. Nobody will minimise their run-getting capacity. Against the bowling the Europeans are likely to serve up, they may be relied upon to hit up a substantial figure. Their bowling too will be far above the average. If the fieldsmen support them well they should experience no difficulty in dismissing their opponents within a reasonable total.

I am glad to see Hindlekar back again behind the sticks. I hope he will acquit himself as creditably as he did in the past. That will solve the problem of the All-India selectors to find a suitable wicket keeper for the next England tour.

KEEN FIGHT EXPECTED

The Europeans seem to have collected a much better side than was expected. Beverly Lyon, a former Gloucestershire captain, will have several County players under his charges, with Denis Compton, the English Test player, in the vanguard. We have seen some of them like Paddy Corral, the Leicestershire wicket keeper, Paul Dobree Carey and Peter Judge, the bowlers, R. T. Simpson, the Karachi batsman, before. They will be further strengthened by C. H. Palmer of Worcester, Ray Tyler of the Liverpool League, Rev. Eccleston of Karachi, and Sinden of the R. A. F. I expect all these players to be well near their usual form. Then the fight is sure to be pretty keen.

REST DEFEATED BY AN INNINGS AND 121 RUNS

BOMBAY, Friday.

Just a little over half an hour sufficed to dismiss the remaining five Rest batsmen for the addition of only 37 runs. Khot was literally unplayable to-day and captured all the five wickets that fell. His analysis this morning were 6.5 overs, 1 maiden, 15 runs and 5 wickets. Frank, Abraham, Perumal, Gundi and Roach were dismissed in that order while the total advanced from 106 to 143. The Parsis thus won by an innings and 121 runs and qualified to meet the Muslims in the semi-final.

Independence In Sight, Says Sarat Bose

CALCUTTA, Jan. 10, (API): "The time has come for Indian independence. There can be very little delay in our achieving freedom" said Mr. Sarat Chandra Bose addressing a large Gathering of Sikh men and women, assembled at Gurudara Jagatsudhara, Kalighat, on the occasion of the celebration of the birthday anniversary of Guru Govind Singh.

Mr. Bose added: "We have not yet got our reward for the struggle for Indian independence waged inside and outside India but we must get the reward in time sooner than many of us hope. Britishers have realised that they will have to quit India. That is why they had to release Shah Nawaz, Sehgal and Dhillion. Britishers realise that they will not be able to deny freedom to India."

JUDGMENT IN BRICK CONTROL CASE POSTPONED

Judgment in the case in which Mr. Cooverji Jethabhai Shah, Municipal Corporator, has been charged by the Government, for breach of the Brick Control Order, was postponed by Mr. M. T. Vyas at the Esplanade Court, to January 22.

The accused is alleged to have contravened the provisions of a permit which was issued to him, for the reconstruction of the walls of his godown, which were blown up in the dock explosion.

Wall Street Firm Despite Profit-Taking

NEW YORK COTTON STEADY ON TRADE SUPPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.

Wall Street opened firm and active. Rails were in the forefront with gains of fractions to more than one. But some of the recent industrial climbers encountered profit taking. The pace slowed towards noon, but advances predominated. The principal buying stimulation was again the expectations that in addition to steel price increases, Government would grant increases elsewhere as a means of ironing out the wage disputes. Later profit-taking restrained many leaders, although selected rails, industrials and utilities extended advances of fractions to more than three points. Steels lost much of their buoyancy and motors slipped but advances predominated at the closure. Commitments were trimmed in many cases because of the feeling that the week's bulge may be overdone. Inflation psychology was also a buying inspiration and the market closed firm. American Telephone 192-3/8 (191-3/8), Amerex Corpn 36 3/4 (36 1/4), Anaconda Copper 47-5/8 (46 1/2), Chase National 46 1/4 Exdiv. (46-7/8), Sinclair Oil 20-1/2 (20-3/8), Firestone Tyre 74-1/2 (73 1/4), General Electric 48-1/8 (48 1/8), General Motors 77-3/8 (77 3/8), Ingersol Rand 142 (141 3/8), International Nickel 39 1/2 (38 3/4), National City Bank 48-3/8 Exdiv (48-1/4), New York Central 34 (34), Socony Vacuum Corpn. 17-5/8 (17-1/2), Texas Corpn 61 3/8 (61 1/4), Union Carbon 106-1/2 (105). NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

New York Cotton market opened steady and made further moderate improvement afterwards, though business was still retarded by the disruption of the wire services. Near months mainly benefited from trade buying and price fixing with the recently supporting factors still operative though unable to stimulate much speculative support. Sellers remained cautious and contracts circulated meagrely owing to inflation ideas and the steadily improving statistical position. At the same time, there was a disposition to await developments in connection with the suggested ceilings and Commodity Credit Corporation offerings while the recent rally in new crops suggests that the technical positions may not be sound, thus any further jolt from the office of price administration may again unsettle the market. One of the most significant features has been the virtual cessation of hedge offerings following southern agitation against the ceilings. At midday the market ruled steady. Latterly there were alternate spurts of buying and selling, the latter finally predominating reflecting overhanging market uncertainties.

CHICAGO GRAINS MARKET

Chicago grains ruled firm on the continued leadership of rye with traders awaiting the official report covering and replacement buying being stimulated by tightness of the nearby statistical position and the recent strength of Argentina where France is reported to be an active buyer of corn. Growing inflationary trend and the uninterrupted advances in securities were additional incentives. A sharp reaction in Winnipeg cancelled early gain.
